NEWSLETTER 2185

GM'S NOTE:

RUN SITE- KALI'S CORNER PANTAI SHAMROCK

Manfred, Jorgen, Sai Seng and Wind were setting the Christmas Run and I tagged along so to give Alexis a helping hand with the food in the evening.

The run started near the stream at the corner and from there we made it along the path. The dogs yapped loudly but not one of them came near us although they were a little off-putting! Up and Up we went very much on old Harriet's paper. Wind kept me company as the other three went on ahead. Finally we exited on the path leading to the top where the others were waiting for us. Soon the path was 'On Down' and by 12.30 we were back at the run-site having taken only 1.5 hours to set.

At 6.00pm the hashers snaked their way to the On In and the ones left behind helped out and arranged the tables in readiness for the food. Whilst waiting for Alexis to arrive as she was caught in a traffic jam, Tiny, soon followed by Pukka Sahib, finished the run in about 35+mins and after that the others came back at irregular intervals with Nick being the last out just after 7.30pm.

Alexis, having duly arrived, was busy arranging and directing the layout of the loaded food platters and rallying her helpers with serving instructions whilst herself filling edible cones with a delicious smoked salmon mix which I was privileged to have a tasting of.....mmmmmmmmmmmmmm!

The layout on the tables was mouthwatering with an array of various foods of a fusion persuasion and when Sperm Whale turned up with roasted potato wedges and garlic bread one could almost hear the tables groan under the weight of the fabulous display.

By this time the crowd had swelled considerably (we had 51 Members and 2 guests) and as the last runner returned the dinner gong sounded and the salivating pack were allowed to sate their appetites until they were stuffed and still there was more. We had an early and shortish circle as there was to be crates of free beer and bottles of red wine to be had afterwards. During said circle Rose @ Grandma went around offering her homemade delicious shortbread just in case anyone was still hungry and her offer was quickly taken up by one and all. Wonderfully crisp and light! Fabulous!

A big thanks goes to Alexis who co-ordinated the whole evening and many thanks too to ALL who helped out, either with preparation of food, run setting, money donation or just with a willing pair of hands, as without all of you we would not have had such a wonderfully successful evening.

I take this opportunity to wish you all a

VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS!!

And I'll hopefully see you all at the final run of the year next Thursday at Leader Garden for Silent Man's run. It should be a good one!

CIRCLE:

1. The first to be on ice was Lyna. The GM got her to the ice on the pretext of admonishing her for charging Sai Seng two weeks in a row for the same offence. The real reason was that she didn't have a Hash Name and so we decided to find one for her. Since Nick and Lyna are relatively new to Penang and hence don't know all the places we run at, the GM often gets calls to ask "Where?" This evening was no different as they went to Mt. Pleasure and not Shamrock. An obvious choice was therefore CALL GIRL and she was duly anointed by W'Anchor.
2. Our two guests for the evening W'Anchor and Yolanda were suitably welcomed.
3. Christine and Philip were too busy chatting away during circle time and didn't see the GM had her eye on them. True enough, she struck with lightening speed and before they knew it, were both on the ice.
4. Charges from the floor saw W'Anchor put Ronnie Tour and Grasshopper on ice. W'Anchor told and acted a wonderful story of arriving late but starting the run only to come across an alcoholic smell on the way up. Suddenly he came across Ronnie gasping and the "fumes were enough to make you drunk just smelling them." As he went on up further he came across Grasshopper in a similar state and "definitely looking green."
5. As Lyna had no hash name earlier then neither had Nick. But what to call the husband of a Call Girl?? There was only one unanimous answer .....PIMP!

6. The GM was being barracked a little by Akz Hole but revenge is best served cold as they say and the GM's revenge was to put him on ice.
7. Fun and festivities often bring out the best in people and we certainly had a few willing participants. The Christmas spirit abounded and so we called out the suitably attired Santas and Santarinas for a nice chilling at our North Pole.
8. Our thanks went next to the four willing hares who laid a good short run but taxing enough to give a great workout. Thanks to Money, Viking, Sai Seng and Wind (and the GM).
9. The final icing of the day was the packs' thank you to the organizer and her helpers (similar to Santa and his elves, one can't function with the other). Alexis @ Uncle Bee and all who helped out deserve our grateful thanks for the wonderful, superb and FANTASTIC evening we had. Not only was the food plentiful, varied and delicious but with the free flowing drinks as well what more of a Christmas Spirit could one have! Thank you all.

Other Announcements

There have been some changes to the Hareline for January and February. Please check to make sure you are not affected!!

Just as a reminder, in general the Hareline publishes runs at least 12 weeks in advance to give you all time to prepare or perhaps change your date if it is not convenient. However we, in return, need early notification if you do want to change. We stipulate at least 8 weeks in advance so that we have time to get someone else to take over the run date. This is not always easy. If you let us know less than 8 weeks then we have said it becomes YOUR responsibility to find someone to change with. Please help us to help you!!!!

The same applies to resignations. Whilst we are sad that people want to resign from the Harriets (still the best Chapter in town!!) we accept their wish and their freedom to do so. It would be courteous however to have an early indication of such resignations so that the hareline can be altered, especially if one has a run date that has been published for some time. Giving little notice really affects us all especially if it is within a few weeks!!!

There are plans afoot to have a FAMILY HASHING at "OCCUPY BEACH STREET" on 26-1-14 which is being organized by Penang Hash Chapters. It would be great to have a large support from the Harriets once more. Please see Invitation Runs for more details

- It's DECEMBER and not only is it Christmas time but it is also very nearly SUBS time for 2014. The Hash Cash will from now on be gratefully receiving next year's SUBS. SO PAY UP!!!!!
- Just to clarify a few points about the rebate given to Members attending outstation DOMESTIC Runs. The rebate is given only if you:
  - Sign up through the Harriets Club and not on your own or through other parties.
  - You have to attend the event.
  - You have to be a Member of at least one year's standing and fully paid up.
  - It is limited to 3 runs/year only.

If you need further clarification please see the GM.

FUNNIES

An elderly man in Oklahoma calls his son in New York and says, "I hate to ruin your day son, but I have to tell you that your mother and I are getting a divorce; 45 years of marriage... and that much misery is enough!" "Dad, what are you talking about?" the son yells. "We can't stand the sight of each other any longer," the old dad explained. "We're sick of each other, and I'm sick of talking about this, so you call your sister in Hong Kong and tell her!". Frantic, the son calls his sister, who explodes on the phone. "Like heck they're getting divorced," she shouts, "I'll take care of this." She calls her elderly father immediately, and screams at him, "You are not getting divorced. Don't do a single thing until I get there. I'm calling my brother back, and we'll both be there tomorrow. Until then, don't do a thing, you hear me?" she yelled as she hung up the phone. The old man hangs up his phone and turns to his wife. "Okay", he says, "it's all set. They're both coming for Christmas and paying their own air-fare.
