GM'S NOTE:

RUN SITE – CHARLIE MARKET

The first run of the year and a virgin setter to boot! HAPPY NEW YEAR!!! This was Mike Maguire's @ Pussywhipped, first set run and chief hare, Sai Seng, Vithia, Mike and myself set off from Charlie Market by 10.30pm on the run morning. We entered on the left of the highway only to be met by papers of many other Chapters. Just as we went up the rise Sai Seng led us down and back on to the Hash Highway where we turned left and continued along it.

After while we entered the bush once more but this time on the right at one of the usual places that would lead to the Shop lots at Tg. Bungah. We were immediately on Harriets' paper from 2 weeks ago (Wan Lyn's run) and we followed that up, down and down towards Mt Erskine Rd. Then, On Up again! All the time chatter was going backwards and forwards as the latest information was passed back and forth.

The last On Up reminded me of Hugh on Wan Lyn's Run who was moaning about the steep, seemingly never ending climb. Finally we hit the top ridge and made our way On Down a very slippery and shaley route to take us into Jln Halia. It was really slippery and I certainly wouldn't want to be doing it in the dark! We made our way through the housing estate, past Take Care's house and then into Charlie Market once more. It was hot and smelly and we made a quick getaway!

In the evening we had 3 guests, Windy Bar & After Hours from Jakarta and the well known Smiling Tiger from Penang. After warning them of the wild animals that abounded in Penang, the prowling Tigers and slithering snakes especially, the pack loped off to return at irregular intervals from about 48 mins to 1.5 hours after the start. Some did the whole run (Iceman was out in 48 mins), some did part of the run and some did their own run but they did something!!! Good for them. The rest just idled by the beer-wagon enjoying the golden nectar after Samy turned up.

It was our overseas guests first Penang Hash and it seems they really enjoyed it especially the jungle and Windy Bar was out amongst the first to return (if not the first!). "So different to running in the S**T of Jakarta" was a comment made!!

The food, cooked by Vithia's wife, was a deliciously tasty Chicken Nasi Lemak which left a wonderful tingle around one's mouth after finishing and was eaten with gusto, after which we had our usual short, sharp and sweet circle.

Many thanks go to Mike for a very good virgin run. To the Hares who made it happen and to the chef for the delicious food.

Other Announcements

CIRCLE TIME

We had three guests for the evening: Windy Bar & After Hours from Jakarta and Smiling Tiger from Penang. Welcome one and all. It was Windy Bar and After Hours first Penang hash and they thoroughly enjoyed it and will recommend it to their friends on their return to Jakarta.

The GM had her favourite person on ice next..TAKE CARE. Whilst waiting for the remaining runners to return the GM was sitting on a small stool which collapsed under her. TC was seen laughing and hence his punishment.

Charges from the floor had Call Girl putting the Hare on ice for misleading her about the run. "He said only 1.5 hills and there were at least 3" she cried!!
Don't you know Call Girl "NEVER TRUST A HASHER!!

Her next charge saw Iceman, having just returned from the cold of Ireland, welcomed back in true fashion. He seems to have either a bit of a bad throat or he was trying to imitate the late Richard Harris. Either way he scared the bejeezus out of her when he came up behind her on the run with his gravelly voice!!

A final charge from Call Girl had a host of 'villains' on the ice. She had met them all whilst on the run but they didn't follow paper and didn't tell her what and where they were going hence leaving her on her own. Shame on you: Beauty Queen, Sioe, Joanna, After Hours and led by none other than Sheikh White Lion.

The final icing was for the Virgin Hare, Pussywhipped. It was a good first run and well set even though there were a few who couldn't follow paper. The food was delicious and a great time was had by all. So many thanks and Well Done!

FUNNIES

One day at a debriefing session Constance, an experienced mediator, was explaining to her mentor that she had lost her self-control earlier in the week....

"You know Margaret, the other day I got so angry I swore and swore like I've never done before."

"Really?" said Margaret, quite surprised at this unusual lapse, "Tell me what happened."

"Well" said Constance, "I was playing golf with Annette Curtin and I hit a beautiful drive that looked like it would go 150 yards down the fairway. But it didn't, it hit an overhead cable and fell to the ground after only 60 yards or so."

"Mmm, go on" said Margaret, realising that there was a bit more to this.

"Well," replied Constance, "I went after the ball and would have taken another shot, only just as I reached it a squirrel burst out of the undergrowth, picked up the ball, and ran off with it!"

"How amazing!" said Margaret "So did you swear because you were surprised?"

"No, of course not" said Constance, "I started running after the squirrel and I was just about to catch up when a huge eagle swooped out of the sky, picked up the squirrel in its talons, and flew away!"

"Wow!" said Margaret "So you swore because you felt that you had almost succeeded in recovering your ball but once again you'd been thwarted?"

"No Margaret" said Constance "In fact Annette and I carried on chasing the eagle and the squirrel, until after a few moments the squirrel dropped the ball into the rough."

"Oh, I see" said Margaret "you swore because after all that your lovely tee shot had ended up in the undergrowth where it would be really hard to hit?"

"No, Margaret, that didn't make me swear because you see when the ball fell into the rough it hit a rock, bounced out again, flew up and over the bunker then landed on the green only 6 inches from the hole."

The two mediators looked at each other for a moment, then Margaret said,

"You missed the f****ng putt, didn't you Constance?"

A young farmhand is driving around the farm and making repairs to the fences.

After a few minutes, he makes a call to his boss on the two-way radio and says, "Boss, I've got a problem. I hit a pig on the road and he's stuck in the bull-bars of the truck. He's still wriggling. What should I do?"

"In the back of your truck there's a shotgun. Shoot the pig in the head and when he stops wriggling, you'll be able to pull it out and throw it in a bush off the side of the road."

The farm worker says okay and signs off. About 10 minutes later he radios back.

"Boss I did what you said. I shot the pig and dragged it out and threw it in a bush."

"So what's the problem now?" his Boss snapped.

"Well, the blue light on his motorcycle is still flashing!"

One day a drunk walked into a bar and ordered a gin and tonic. He drank half of it and poured the rest on the bartender.

The bartender got angry, grabbed the drunk by the collar, pulled him close to his face, and asked, "Why did you do that?"

The drunk said very apologetically, "I am so very sorry sir. Please forgive me. I can't help it. It's an illness I can't get rid of. I am so ashamed of it. How can I make it up to you?"

The bartender answered, "Haven't you seen anyone about this problem?"

The drunk replied, "I never thought of that. Maybe I will."

The bartender said, "Don't come back until you do get help," and the drunk left.

About three months later the drunk came back to the same bar, ordered another gin and tonic, drank half of it, and poured the rest of it on the bartender.

The bartender shouted, "I thought I told you not to come back until you got help!"

The drunk replied, "I did. Now I don't feel ashamed."
