GM'S NOTE:

RUN SITE – TAR COLLEGE NEW ROAD

A co-hare's tale

Money and Viking were already at the runsite when I drove in and Sai Seng followed suit. There was a paper trail as we neared the stream with no hash logo but the trail only went on up. Viking wanted to skirt before crossing the path to the other side and Money, as anyone setting a run with him would be familiar with his style, went dashing off into the undergrowth without a backward glance and only stopped when unsure of the way. At one time Viking called out to him "Have you fallen into a hole?" as he had disappeared once again!

Eventually we had skirted enough and reached the path and went on up! The hill was full of boulders and in some areas the gaps were wide so that one would have to be on all fours or be extremely agile to get across. Viking was gauging that if I could make it then even the short legs of others could too.

The flora and fauna of the trail untouched, until now, by humans treading through the undergrowth was beautiful. Sai Seng kept me company as the faster pair went off again dashing away in front in all directions it seemed. We stumbled upon old paper and that gave us an idea of our location. After a quick discussion we started the On Down trail. Money was soon way ahead as usual and soon reached the path. Viking did not want to come out on the road and hence we had to scout the way back across the stream and on to the other side.

In the evening we were joined by guests Blackened Pecker, W'Anchor and Yolander. The pack went off on time and the usual late comers then arrived along with the food. A very sweaty Iceman was first back in about 55mins followed by W'anchor and Goodyear. The others traipsed in over the next 45 mins with Tiny missing paper somewhere and coming out at a different point. Last to return were White Lion and Silentman who were acting sweepers. Thanks guys!

Many thanks go to Viking for hosting the evening with good food, a good challenging run and free beer!

CIRCLE TIME

1. Welcome to the guests: Blackened Pecker (Holland), Yolander (UK), W'Anchor (Penang) and Juicy 2 (Penang). W'Anchor didn't get iced however as he was doing the songs!!
2. Call Girl was summoned to the ice but had disappeared. In her place Pimp was called instead. The charge was for week after week having a charge but sometimes the same charge for the same person!
3. A charge from the floor by Blackened Pecker put the GM on ice. He had wanted to buy a T-shirt but the GM has forgotten to bring them with her!!
4. A charge from Money put Beauty Queen and White Lion on ice. His charge was one of only having eyes for each other. Apparently they were spotted before the run grooming themselves and then met and walked with each other. No doubt swapping hair tips!!!
5. It was good to see Camel Toe back at the run once more after her bout of Dengue. This didn't save her from an icing for talking too much during circle time however.
6. A last charge from Money saw Tiny on ice for losing paper and not being observant enough!
7. The Hare of the Day, Viking, was then duly thanked for a very successful evening. A good challenging run, good food and for the two crates of beer he sponsored.

PLEASE NOTE

Next week's run is being moved from the Info Centre to the New Car Park (our old site) just further along the road. This is because there is now a sign at the entrance banning the drinking of alcohol at the Info Centre. This is Call Girl's virgin set run so please come along and support her.

FUNNIES

AT FIRST SHE DECLARED SHE WOULDN'T,

THEN LATER SHE WHISPERED SHE SHOULDN'T

BUT WHEN SHE GAVE IN

AFTER TWO PINTS OF GIN

SHE LAY DOWN AND FOUND THAT SHE COULDN'T

I MUST SAY I GOT QUITE A SHOCK

WHEN I OPENED THE DOOR TO YOUR KNOCK

AND THERE YOU WERE STANDING

QUITE NUDE ON THE LANDING

WITH LIPSTICK ALL OVER YOUR COCK.
