THERE ARE 22 MEMBERS FROM LAST YEAR WHO HAVE NOT PAID THEIR SUBS. FROM NOW ON, IF THE SUBS ARE NOT PAID A GUEST FEE WILL BE CHARGED

The Hash House Harriets Penang would like to give their heartfelt condolences to Kiss Me (Francoise) on the recent demise of her mother. Our thoughts and sympathy are with you at this very difficult time.

GM'S NOTE:

RUN SITE – MAR VISTA LOWER CAR PARK

Lower car park, Mar Vista Apartments was, in the past, a popular runsite before the construction of the present houses at the entrance. The On In and On Out are now severely restricted with the only way now to climb over the barrier, scamper up the embankment and skirt the fence. Silentman and Sai Seng laid the trail over this and then down a slope on to dry bush littered with construction rubbish.

As we followed the trail we came out on the roadway and met Beauty Queen who was waiting for Uncle Bee and others. Ronnie Tour was saying “you are all going the wrong way and I am going the right way” And off he went taking BQ and Huge with him...OFF PAPER!!

As usual I was soon at the back and Mike had long since disappeared leaving Call Girl, guest Tri and myself. Tri was a friend of Lyna from Nicaragua and a virgin hasher too boot. On we went and soon met with White Lion returning mumbling something about going on the track. Iceman passed us as we made our way further up the hill and my two companions didn't seem at all fazed or tired by the climb, even waiting for me when I fell behind. After they disappeared once more in front of me I heard encouraging shouts from Tri who herself was struggling with the dry conditions and her flat soled shoes. Soon I heard “On Down” and I caught back up with them as they were very carefully making their way down the very dry and slippery slopes. Tri seemed to be enjoying herself though and promised to get better shoes for next time. She was also telling me that she wouldn't be stopping late afterwards as she had to get back to her young daughter but will come again. It will be nice to see her.

As we reached the bottom and on to the return track past the Chinese Shrine I relaxed a bit thinking it was easy from here on in. How wrong I was as the last section was by far the most torturous as it was filled with vines and construction rubbish by the truckload. It took seemingly forever to negotiate it without injury. I thoroughly agree with Sai Seng when he said the Government should make it compulsory that developers take away all the rubbish and not just leave it at the building site.

Jaimey had put on a generous spread and his guests were mingling around especially near the beer wagon. He even had laid on live music for us and we had a few budding singers strutting their stuff karaoke style. To top it all he even had a short fireworks display and laid on 2 crates of beer!

I can't imagine the lengths he must have gone to get it all organised and his only regret was that the evening was not spent at a Club of his own. I hope that one day his wish comes true once more.

Thank you Jaimey for your generosity and a wonderful evening.

CIRCLE TIME

1. We welcomed our guests: Kulwant and Balwinder from SP Full Moon Hash, Gordon & Nick Loh from Penang, Ben from the UK and Tri from Nicaragua.
2. Tobias who has been running with us the last couple of weeks has become our latest member. Welcome Toby!!
3. Jude, whose company usually does all the music at Harriet functions, finally was given a hash name. That of JUDEBOX for obvious reasons! (My choice was Music Man, ed.)
4. Nick Lilo was welcomed as a visiting GM from the THK. Nick being an old Harriet member was duly reminded of his past by the GM.
5. The Hare for the Day, Jamiey @ Rough Rider was then truly thanked for his generosity for the evening's events and displays.

6. Jaimey then thank everyone for turning up and put his two friends from the SP Full Moon Hash on ice to thank them for coming all this way for his run.
7. Although not iced, thanks were also given to Sai Seng and Silentman for setting the run and to Hot and Spicy for the food.

I offer an apology to all as I gave out the wrong run and venue for next week!!!!

Next week it is POSH's run at Bee Gallery. Please pass this on!!
