GM'S NOTE:

RUN SITE- YOUTH PARK, NEW CARPARK

Heartfelt Condolences to the families and crew members onboard the ill-fated MH370. I shed tears when i saw their pics of the passengers and crew in the papers the other day. Even though i doesn't know any one of them, their smiling faces reveal that they are all happy people - Farewell & RIP

We will be organizing a Outstation Run on 17th-18th May @ Danok, Thailand.

Those interested, pls contact VGM (Beauty Queen) for further details.

We had 48 members and 4 guests( Oliver, Tana, Matt and Ah Lye) who came for the Rock climbing run.....

Welcome Benz, the latest addition to Harriets.

1st Out within an hour- Goodyear, Iceman, Tiny and General....Well done!!!

BURST FOR RUN 2198 - KELVIN - YOUTH PARK, NEW CARPARK

We all assembled at the Youth Park, New car park, now that decadent hash behavior has been outlawed around the Youth Park Info Centre. It was a hot and sticky night, according to some. So much so that two of the Harriets looked like they had resorted to wearing just their underwear....Call Girl and G String must have thought they were on a Victoria Secret shoot (or was it Sports Illustrated?), prancing around in their tight skimpy shorts. I noticed G Man had a pack on, so he must have had the rest of the wardrobe on hand ....in case it got cooler ...yeah right ...more on the contents of G Man's pack later.

Anyway, it was the mysterious Kelvin's run, with subcontracted hare Sai Seng. The last remarks were*"paper on the tree on the way up, paper on the ground on the way down" *Let's see who was listening!! We set off into the bush straight across the road from the carpark. The usual pecking order appears as we start to ascend. I was behind guest Military Man Matt (M3), and Pussy Cat was ahead of him. Let's see who the real pussy is later.

The General came striding along up behind us, then Iceman on the catch up from a late start. M3 was trying to prove his military worth as Iceman blew by. Not much later, while still on the first On Up, M3 was hanging on to a tree like his life depended on it. The General and I passed by then I think we went down a bit and started to climb again through the river ....boulder hopping, just like when I was a kid. Great. I spotted Money on the way, who was taking it easy, as he already knew the run from last Monday. Doesn't sound like Money....later I heard that Rupiah had "taxed him" too much the previous night and he only had "change" left for the run.

The General must have passed me on the 2nd On Up, as when I got to the top and there he was, sitting down enjoying the view as I came gasping onto the track. It looked like an easy way down so I kept on going. Soon after the General had a head of steam on, and came charging by, never to be seen again. While I thought I had a few of the FRBs in my sight on the way up, as soon as it flattened out, they were "Gone with the wind".

So I was in cruise mode going down for the "On Beer" not expecting to see anyone. Then G Man and AML appear on the trail asking me why I am going down, as they are heading up. Remember I said, "lets see who was listening". Paper on the floor on the way down, and it was. G Man protesting that he followed paper all the way. Now let's see ..G Man is usually quite fast, and AML is usually not so fast. So what was really in that pack G Man...perhaps enough for a little "picnic" off paper in the bush....G Man, we know you are a wannabe Ang Mo.

So continuing down in cruise mode, more people were popping out of the bush...did anyone go all the way? Posh, Speedhound, Rupiah bashing through the gully and up on to the track.

I arrive back and see half the crowd already out...bloody SCBs.

20 minutes later M3 arrives. Good work GI Joe! He says that he saw the Pimp heading UP the on down. I guess a leopard never changes his spots and he is determined to get lost at every run.

"Let's see who is listening", next time.
