NEWSLETTER 2207

GM's Note:

Tar College, New Road, the runsite where numerous complains were made either by the caretaker of the Chinese Temple or Residents of the Apt blocks nearby. So, arriving early, I had to redirect the cars to be parked at the front of the junction to avoid blocking the entrance of the temple and as far away from the Apt blocks.

Everyone who came for the run were full of sweaty faces as it has been a hot and humid day!!!!!!

When the Circle was called, our pioneer member, Rose and Richard Jones make a special announcement- Free Beers for everyone- it's their 60th Wedding Anniversary!!!! The hungry pack of 46 members and 3 guests were overwhelmed and wanted to start their "journey" ASAP

We Wished Rose and Richard Jones a Blessed Life and Many More Years Ahead!!!!!!!

Run: AML, Tar road, TAR College.

After being a month in Holland, enjoying the company and the wine, it was my first run back in Penang and Uncle Bee asked me to write the burst. Actually not a good an idea since I knew already I could only write about myself and Silent Man since he is the sweeper. But when Uncle Bee asks you, you do.

Arriving at the runsite it was very nice to see all my friends again. We first took a picture with the diamond couple Rose and Richard Jones. DIAMOND!! I don't think I have that many years in my to even come close.

AML said it was a medium run but bring a torchlight since the last part was going to be rocks and they were difficult to climb.

Off we went to the familiar track up besides the pond. I was not last then and we were discussing how many years silver gold and diamond weddings were. The track was nice and gentle going up. Uncle Bee also went for the run. Texas and Wobbly Tits came along as guests and we were in a group together with Rupiah. The first on up was still okay, but Texas and Wobbly Tits passed me. Rupiah also thought I was too slow and off she went.

We met Viking somewhere going up and he was taking pictures of some of the girls. Not mine though, I guess I was already too sweaty to look nice in the picture. We hit 2 sorts of paper and instead of going straight we had to go down and find the paper again. Mother Hen and Uncle Bee were still behind me so I did not see Silent Man yet. That did not last long, after we came on a kind of road they turned back, Toddy Tan passed me and I was the second last one. I struggled further along the way and Silent Man was behind me all the time that went on till we reached the end of the run in the dark. Nothing to say except that when we were almost at the last part we heard screams from Texas and Wobbly Tits, we found out a little later that that was the part of the rocks AML had warned us about. It was already dark by then and we also struggled to pass it. The rest of the run was just down and nothing eventful happened.

Thank you Silent Man for being such a patient sweeper. You do make a difference. A good run, but I personally had preferred to climb the rocks in the beginning of the run when you are not so tired.

Jokes of the day

There is a fellow who is talking to his buddy and says, "I don't know what to get my wife for her birthday. She has everything, and besides, she can afford to buy anything she wants. I'm stumped." His buddy says, "I have an idea. Why don't you make up a certificate that says she can have two hours of great sex, any way she wants it. She'll probably be thrilled!" The first fellow does just that. The next day, his buddy asks, "Well, did you take my suggestion? How did it turn out?" "She loved it. She jumped up, thanked me, kissed me on the mouth, and ran out the door yelling, 'I'll see you in two hours!'"

Three brothers wanted to give their blind mom a birthday gift. The first got her a big beautiful house. The second got her a brand new luxury vehicle with a driver. The third got her a talking parrot to keep her company. When they all got together, they wanted to know which gift she liked best. She said they were all great but she thanked her third son because she liked the chicken dinner best.

There are 11 people hanging onto a rope that comes down from an airplane. 10 of them are blonde, and one is a brunette. They all decide that one person should get off because if they don't, the rope will break and everyone will die. No one can decide who should go, so finally the brunette delivers a very touching speech, ending with the words, "I'll get off." The blondes, all moved by the brunette's speech, start clapping. Problem solved.
