NEWSLETTER 2211

GM's Note:

Smaller than usual turnout of members came for Rupiah's run at Beverly Hills - many had gone to Hua Hin, Thailand for an invitation run..... including our beerman Sammy. Many Thanks to AzeHole and Sai Seng for mending the fault in his absence!!!!

The scorching weather past weeks made the medium hike very slippery but nevertheless, most front runners completed it within a hour....Bravo!!!!

Burst

Beverly Villas/twin towers run site.

Ok here goes>>>

I arrived at the run site almost on time and noticed first of all that numbers were a bit down as we were missing quite a few stalwarts as they had emigrated to Thailand or at least made the journey up to Hua Hin by train, for some R &R ( aka Hashing in the hills).

Sammy was one of the Thai emigrees so no Sammy Beer BUT I think it was Sai Seng and Just Beer who had made sure that we were not to go thirsty as I noticed a nice big esky full of the amber fluid was already in place.

I was not in time for the briefing by Uncle Bee but took off anyway accompanied by Hugh, as we had heard second hand that the run was suitable for hashers of our pace and stamina, so off we stumbled up and up and up and up>>> it was a long on up, through what appeared to be a swathe of burnt wasteland where there had been a forest fire. Meanwhile Hugh and I were debating the wisdom of our decision to not be SCB's!!, we made it to the top of somewhere and then came down again, some quite steep bits for us old folks. ( Or maybe that was the Tuesday before run, never mind it happened somewhere in time at a run site somewhere!!)

By this time some more fleet of foot runners passed us, the General followed later by Ice man tearing through the woods at a great rate of knots coming towards us on paper!!! Now how did that happen??

I kept pace with Ma, and we had a good old chat about nothing in particular whilst we congratulated ourselves on not being SCB's!! On arrival, Viking was asking us did we see some temple, to which I replied what Temple? One of us, I can not remember who was stung by a small bee, ( not Uncle B) , to which Viking assured us that there were no Bees on the trail so we must have taken a wrong turn. Perhaps bees do not always stay in the same place, as I thought we were on paper??

Anyway we all got back, to be welcomed by the catering team who produced some great Curry Chicken, rice, accompaniments and papapapapadoms.

The GM can tell you about the circle, as then I had a few beers and after that suffered from a short term memory loss.

Circle

Sole guest, Hari2 Mau to the ice throne. Being a regular bunny's guest for several weeks, she was asked to rejoin the Club and even members like Take Care offered to pay her Subs.....Her reply- Next year lah!!!!

Pussycat next for being the 1st Bunny runner out in the absence of Tiny who had gone back to UK for holidays.

Tiu Nia Seng next, to be reminded of our Chapter's paper and not others on the trail. A mistake he did a couple of weeks ago during Pi's run and ended up in another Chapter's runsite!!! He was also asked to interpret his hash name in English which literary means "F***k* oneself"

AzeHole charges GM for bring own beers to the runsite in view of Bad Time

ExGM Justbeer and AzeHole on the ice for breaking the tradition and started the run at 5.30pm

Lastly bunny were Thanked for a good run and good food
