GM's Note:

It must have been more than a year since we last ran at Tembaga, Indian Temple. Getting there via Green Lane is a nightmare for most of us. Traffic jam esp so at 5pm and needless to say, most of us arrived late or just in the nick of time. So, do leave early next week for the Bukit Gambir run.

World Cup News-

Horrifying Massacre!!!!!! Didn't believe Brazil would cave in so badly without Neymar or Silva!!!! Trashed 7-1 by the Germans. The Germans team is like a well-oiled merciless machine. Now, ONLY Argentina can save South America's Pride. If they win, they will make History- No European team has EVER WON on South Americas Soil and vice versa. Best Bet- Argentina for me.....GOAL ! G...000000AL! GGG000000ALLLLLLL!

Burst

It was a cloudy day run. About 20 over members came to the run. We have 5 guests from Langkawi, Europe, and local to join our run. We ran across some farms and rambutan orchards. Some of us plucked some rambutans to eat too. Too bad that we didn't brought back for some members to eat.

Molly was very busy preparing her food to serve. It was a nice food and everyone going for many rounds to finish them. She also brought along some homemade jelly and tit bits and jack fruits. We sincerely would like to thank Ah Cheng for her kindness to bring fruits such as mangoseteen and durians from her farm for us every week nonstop. Big thank to Ah Cheng and Frank.

One of our guest from Langkawi who is once our Harriet member celebrate her birthday with us. She is Jenny and wish her with many success.
