GM's Note:

DO NOT LITTER ANYTHING at the Runsite.....esp your paper plates, cups and Beer bottles, Rm50 fine will be impose to anyone caught in the Act!!!!!!!

Beverly Hills is one of my favourite runsite- clean, plenty of street lamps, and lots of unoccupied Bungalows for the time being, greens and fresh air. What more can one ask???

About 30 odd hashers turned up for our Bunny's medium run and all were out by 8pm including Posh and Pukka Sahib for a change.

Burst

Here is the burst for the last run:

Two runs back I was approached by our Grand Mistress to write the Burst but since I did not make the run there was no way she was going to forget this time. Even with the excuse: how can I write the Burst as I usually do not do the full run? I must write.

The usual crowd and veteran Harriets were there to support Kim Looi's run. Uncle Bee warned Harriets not to follow Pukka Sahib as many-a-time he follows the wrong paper: last Thursday he came out with Lena Posh two hours late.

Off we went past the water tank, before pushing ourselves up, Silent Man was standing to make sure that we were on the right track. Uncharacteristically early, the pack was led by Michael-long-hair with Speedhound in hot pursuit. In a reversal of roles, Goodyear and Iceman were the late comers but swiftly they overtook the main pack.

It was announced as a Medium Run but from past bad experience we do not trust the Hare and for slow runners it was going to be a Long Run. We asked Silent Man about the run and his advice was to hit a hash highway and take the right turn. Many-a-time Silent Man had been a Sweeper with me and he knows how late so back runners can be. Anyway, we were not planning to go all the way but at least half way, just enough to be able to write an SCB's Burst.

After over half an hour of on up and skirting along the way with Tody in tow we reached the first on up and we could see paper ahead of us. Waiting for us were Beauty Queen, Lena Posh and Rupiah. After much debate the three decided to SCB with us. We followed Silent Man's advice and after checking that there were some very old hash paper on some trees the path eventually took us to Leader Garden.

The first few km was trodden clear path and we could see houses below. We bashed through some overgrown paths and at the same time looking for old hash paper. Eventually we hit familiar ground and a sharp On-Down using our behinds to slide down we hit Leader Garden, our old hash site, but Oh No, there is a fence ahead. A kind passer on his jog told us to go back up the hill again and down to an open gate. From there onwards it was a straight and easy walk back to Beverly Hills.

A few front runners were already back as we came back before dark. Mother Hen and a few back runners came in around 8pm. So you can imagine that if we had not SCBed it would have been at least 9pm On In.

Good Jawa Mee enjoyed by all and a very happy Uncle Bee as his nephew enjoyed the frozen durians.

Jokes of the day

So hospitable the boy is

The hostess apologized to her unexpected guest for serving an apple-pie without any cheese. The little boy of the family left the room quietly for a moment and returned with a piece of cheese which he laid on the guest's plate. The visitor smiled, put the cheese into his mouth and then said: "You must have better eyes than your mother, sonny. Where did you find the cheese?" "In the rat-trap, sir," replied the boy

No Jews

A Jewish lady named Mrs. Rosenberg who many years ago was stranded late one night at a fashionable resort on Cape Cod --one that did not admit Jews.

The desk clerk looked down at his book and said, 'Sorry, no room. The hotel is full.' The Jewish lady said, 'But your sign says that you havevacancies.' The desk clerk stammered and then said curtly, 'You know that we do not admit Jews. Now if you will try the other side of town...'

Mrs. Rosenberg stiffened noticeably and said, 'I'll have you know I converted to your religion.'

The desk clerk said, 'Oh, yeah, let me give you a little test. How was Jesus born?'

Mrs. Rosenberg replied, 'He was born to a virgin named Mary in a little town called Bethlehem.'

'Very good,' replied the hotel clerk. 'Tell me more.'

Mrs. Rosenberg replied, 'He was born in a manger.'

'That's right,' said the hotel clerk. 'And why was he born in a manger?'

Mrs. Rosenberg said loudly, 'Because a jerk like you in the hotel wouldn't give a Jewish lady a room for the night!'

The Alligator and the shoes

A young blonde was on vacation in the depths of Louisiana. She wanted a pair of genuine alligator shoes in the worst way, but was very reluctant to pay the high prices the local vendors were asking.

After becoming very frustrated with the "no haggle" attitude of one of the shopkeepers, the blonde shouted, "Maybe I'll just go out and catch my own alligator so I can get a pair of shoes at a reasonable price!"

The shopkeeper said, "By all means, be my guest. Maybe you'll luck out and catch yourself a big one!"

Determined, the blonde turned and headed for the swamps, set on catching herself an alligator.

Later in the day, the shopkeeper is driving home when he spots the young woman standing waist deep in the water, shotgun in hand. Just then, he sees a huge 9 foot alligator swimming quickly toward her.

She takes aim, kills the creature and with a great deal of effort hauls it on to the swamp bank. Laying nearby were several more of the dead creatures.

The shopkeeper watches in amazement. Just then the blonde flips the alligator on it's back, and frustrated, shouts out, "Damn it, this one isn't wearing any shoes either!"

Exposed Breast

A blonde is walking down the street with her blouse open, exposing one of her breasts.

A nearby policeman approaches her and remarks, "Ma'am, are you aware that I could cite you for indecent exposure?"

"Why, officer?" asks the blonde.

"Because your blouse is open and your breast is exposed."

"Oh my goodness," exclaims the blonde, "I must have left my baby on the bus!"
