NEWSLETTER 2224

GM's Note:

What does one expect @ Grandma's run??? Little grandchildren running on the run- Well that's exactly what happened. Guests of the night were mostly little children who were on school breaks for a week. Well done to all the hashers who brought their little ones to enjoy the medium run.

Bonsai, a prohibited runsite for many hash Chapters were made possible thru our member Sai Seng who sought prior approval from the committee members. It must have been at least 8 years or so since we last ran there and everything look the same as before.....

Joint Hash Ball Tickets are available NOW!!!!!!Please support YOUR CLUB.

We appreciate Lucky draws goodies, sponsorship of any kind and participation in Hash Acts. Please see Beauty Queen, Mother Hen or any committee members for assistance

Burst PH4 BURST: **A Hash Night to Remember...*

*Its not every hash where the “bunny” has celebrated her 37th year hashing with PH4!! The “bunny” and her hubby (who has hashed for a mere 43 years)also have a life outside of Hashing... successfully playing the card game “bridge”... at a very high level!!*

*Nor do we often “reconnect” after many years with a former treasured runsite!! But the savvy/thoughtful approach to the committee responsible for Bonsai by the co-hare, Sai Seng, resulted in our permission to return to this interesting site! *

*The “bonsai” site was in the midst of a very highly populated part of Penang... where the neighbours are indeed very peaceful and revered! When the circle was ordained, many of the 43+1 Hashers were off on a romp in a newish hilly jungle trail. The “main run” was deemed to be a “medium run”...and most of the runners headed past a small herd of cows and Nubian sheep and then off up the first hill. After several “ups and downs” on the trails of Mount Olivia, the first runners returned after an hour plus.*

*There was also another run lead by the bunny, “Grandma”. The alternate trail lead to the very well landscaped “Bodhi Heart” centre, the two Shan orphanages as well as an area where a number of people have undertaken to provide vegetarian food [estimated at more than 150 kilos] to wild boar [there were over 70 wild boar—with the majority being very young] as well as ducks, geese and monkeys.*

*The hashers were also treated to very good Makan... All in all a very memorable evening.*

*As mentioned earlier there were 43+1 runners at the start. The “+1” included the many fond memories that many of us had of a founding member of the Tuesday Hash Kakis who had recently passed away. “Stephe-er” was an excellent singer of [mainly] Hokkien songs during many circles. He was also a frequent provider of beverages to the “frisky whisky group”. *

*After the circle many Hashers attended a wake in *

Jokes of the day

1] A mom of an eight year old boy is awaiting her son's arrival from school. As he runs in, he says he needs to talk to her about making babies. He claims he knows about the development of a fetus, but doesn't understand the answer to the million dollar question. Namely, how does the sperm get into the woman? The mom asks the boy what he thinks the answer is. The boy says that the sperm is manufactured in the man's stomach, rises up to his chest, then throat, and into his mouth, where he then kisses the woman and deposits the sperm into her mouth. The mom tells her boy that it is a good guess, but it's wrong. She gives him a hint by telling him that the sperm comes out of the man's penis. Suddenly, the boy's face becomes quite red and he says, "You mean you put your mouth on that thing?"

2] Wife: "I look fat. Can you give me a compliment?"
Husband: "You have perfect eyesight."

3] A young woman was taking golf lessons and had just started playing her first round of golf when she suffered a bee sting. Her pain was so intense that she decided to return to the clubhouse for medical assistance. The golf pro saw her heading back and said, "You are back early, what's wrong?" "I was stung by a bee!" she said. "Where?" he asked. "Between the first and second hole." she replied. He nodded and said, "Your stance is far too wide."
