GM's Note:

Rifle Range car park runsite is the only runsite we uses once every 2 years during grasshopper run. Once a dump-site car park now newly converted to a hugh concrete car park including a children playground equipped with a stage. The surrounding low cost flats were all repainted with bright colours too. What a sight.....

Arriving early at the runsite, Datin and myself decided to check out the surrounding area- What a contrast from our last run and now it's so bright , clean and tidy. By then, hashers began arriving and a white van drove by and parked next to where we were standing. Rough Rider, starting unloading the sound system and lighting and all of us knew that it's going to be a party at the runsite tonight.

All in 50 hashers, 3 guests and friends from Powertrax Network had gathered when circle was called- Medium run, pointing to the normal" in" and off they went in search of the trail.

Everyone was in for a coconut drink treat by our hare upon their return. What a way to quench their thirst and to enjoy the young flesh of the coconuts...Another surprise was in store after a delicious indian dinner, a sole organist was providing beautiful “oldies melody” and everyone started dancing right in the childrens playground. Nearby residents were seen enjoying the music and buying beers off from our beerman Sammy.

Many Thanks to Grasshopper and Jude of Powertrax Network for all the efforts put in for his birthday run including crates after crates of free Beers. All of us enjoyed it so much that dancing went on until the early hours of the morning. Anyone thinking of partying??? Call Jude of Power Trax Network for the BEST music Entertainment....on..on

Burst

The Burst

Run date October 16th

Location: Rifle Range Car Park

Hare: Grasshopper

Scribe: Tiny

We arrived with several minutes to spare which was just as well because it was already necessary to search for a parking place. Rough Rider and his gang were busy rushing around setting up the sound system and lights. The feeling was good- we were going to have a great evening. I should never have looked so contented because GM sidled up and gave me the sob story about needing someone to do the burst so what could I do but agree!

The circle was called and the guests welcomed and we were to set off up the road behind Sai Seng who would show us the way. So off we trotted alongside the cemetery to the Chinese temple and entered the jungle to the left, went up the waterfall and over and then started climbing and skirting to the right up the hill.

There was no rain so everyone felt in a good mood and loads of friendly exchanges were taking place. As it was hash, some near the knuckle remarks were being made so the chat was punctuated with loud guffaws of hilarity.

The pleasant climb continued with some skirting and we were still basically travelling right along a not unfamiliar route. We then reached the boulder strewn stream which we climbed up and then the serious climbing started and a few huffs and puffs could be heard as we struggled upwards. We could see the end of the trees so everyone was silently uttering nearly there. However, when we reached the end of the trees there was still a little hump to get up and over.

Finally we were on the on down and so the speed increased and smiles widened. We got to the concrete path and Sai Seng was there to reassure us it was just straight down. We arrived at the run site to be greeted with fresh coconuts.

The pack dribbled back to the site and as usual the dinner club arrived to swell the crowd. We were sitting in the area between the car park and the children's playground. We were entertained with music, given great Indian food and a large number of free beers so a fantastic time was had by all.

Many thanks to the birthday boy, Grasshopper (Lucas) for putting on such a brilliant evening
