NEWSLETTER 2241

GM's Note

A good turnout for Eddie the Punk rock climbing run @ Youth park car park. The weather was so hot and humid that it would “melt” everyone who came for the run.....

I'll be collecting CNY contributions from next week onwards and of course your hash dues if you have not done so.

Burst

Run Site - Youth Park Inner Car Park

Hare - Eddy the Punk

Date - 15/01/2015

The run started from the run site across the road and straight into a small stream, located on the right side of the info centre and horse stable. The trail was cleverly laid along the stream and everyone struggled to get their footing on the slippery rock which slowed down the runners considerably. The trail then cut to the right side and more rocks were encountered up-slope. We encountered a huge log and a water pipe straddled across it. We had to climb over the log and unfortunately one of the runners dislodged the pipe at its joint. Iceman managed to join the pipe and we carried on with the run (Later we learned that it became disjointed and was fixed by Viking and our two guests).

Thereafter, in her haste to get around a huge rock face, Angelai suddenly lost her footing and fell, rolling down the rocky slope. She was alright though, saved for a few scratches.

The trail then turned left and we had to cross the same stream to cross over to the left side of the hill. We crossed another stream and then went down a slope towards Jesselton Heights. The trail then turned upwards and just as we thought that we would be climbing up to the top and familiar trail that leads back to the youth park, it turned left and sideways. By the time the sideway trail ended, we were overlooking the Penang Turf Club. Thereafter it was all the way down, albeit through undergrowths and rocky trails.

We finally reached Jesselton Heights and turned left towards the familiar path back to the run site.

Overall, as Tiny rightly put it, the trail was rocky all the way., but it was a good sweat.
