GM's Notes

Chinese New Year is that time of the year when hawker food is expensive, there is so much to eat and my dogs are so frightened of the firecrackers that they will be under the bench as a shelter. It is also the time when traffic is so bad and every second car is from outside of Penang.

This year our Chinese members decided to have their CNY run after the Chap Goh Mei when the female members had all thrown their oranges in the sea and what a feast it turned out to be! Sai Seng lit up the firecrackers to start the run and I expected all to return within two hrs. The run was a short to medium with no checks and the only hard part was the 'on down' as it was very slippery with dry shale and leaves underfoot and a couple of places where the drop had few hand holds.

Goodyear and Mohan finished the run together in about 45/50 mins and the others trickled in over the next hour. The sumptuous food was laid out and it was hard to resist the cookies and snacks.

Free beers were being drunk in copious quantities along with wine and Chinese whisky (it tasted more like raw moonshine) alongside the mouth-watering and varied food on offer including duck soup, tiger prawns and soya pork.

Cheng at some point realised that Jean, our newest member, was missing having gone on the hike. It was hoped that she would have turned around as she was unfamiliar with the terrain and certainly not used to it. It was also realised that Silentman was also missing but it was naturally thought he would be sweeping for the back runners and would be with Jean guiding her home.

After several phone calls to the missing party, Goodyear and Sai Seng decided that if by 9.30pm they were not out they would go and look for them. A last phone call assured them it was not necessary as they were almost out and they did finally exit at 9.45pm when a very tired looking Jean and Silentman appeared on the terrace above. A big thank you to Silentman for once again ensuring the back runners come out safe and sound.

About 50 members attended the evening's celebration but the numbers had dwindled somewhat as we had a short circle to thank our hosts for the evening.

Circle

1. Guest on ice – Joe Mallozee from the USA.
2. Jean for coming out at 9.45pm
3. Pole Dancer (Renata) for 200 'runs' (well at least attending 200 times!!)
4. Our Indian members and especially Endiran who was blessed in hash fashion and given the hash name "Handyman"
5. Goodyear charged Black German and Tiny for being voted the GM PH3 and VGM THK.
6. Take Care charged the GM for not offering a crate of beer to celebrate her becoming the GM of Harriets. That was quickly put right by a crate suddenly appearing.
7. Goodyear charged Take Care for some reason (possibly using iced water on the honourees) but then again being Take Care is enough just to be iced anyway.
8. Our Chinese hosts for the evening were then duly thanked in proper manner for the delicious food and free drinks and great evening.
9. The GM thanked Sai Seng for all the work he did and James for being such a great support to the back runners.

After that the party continued until late!!

Report on Harriets attendance at FTAC 15th Anniversary Run 14 March 2015.

The FTAC had their 15th Anniversary after splitting from the Harriets and what a beach party it was!! The beer was free-flowing and plentiful as it needed to be with over 2000 people from all over the country and abroad attending. A good number of Harriet members being amongst them.

The crowd is proof that if you want numbers you must be willing to go and tout at the different runs and Chapters and that is what the FTAC Organising Committee did by appointing one person 2 years ago to do just that, not only in Malaysia but in Indonesia also. Our own 50th anniversary is in 6 years time and maybe we can learn from this fantastic achievement.

There were three runs on the day of different lengths but the wiser ones did the main run to the beer stall and back several times instead. The food was good but soon ran out and the beer was never ending.

The Harriets put on a Hash act for the assembled mass. It was a dance routine which was well performed for the crowd and was well deserved of their applause. We were the only Chapter to do an act as the rest of the entertainment was purely professional. Well done to Christine, Tina, Jesbir, Sai Seng, Eugene and Theo. You were great!

We left around 11.00pm but the party was still going on with fireworks, bonfire and stage performances playing to the remaining very large numbers still drinking away. I wonder if it went on all night?? It certainly looked as though it might!

Unfortunately we have no photos since the camera was lost!! Those of you who went and have photos please send them to me to put on the website.

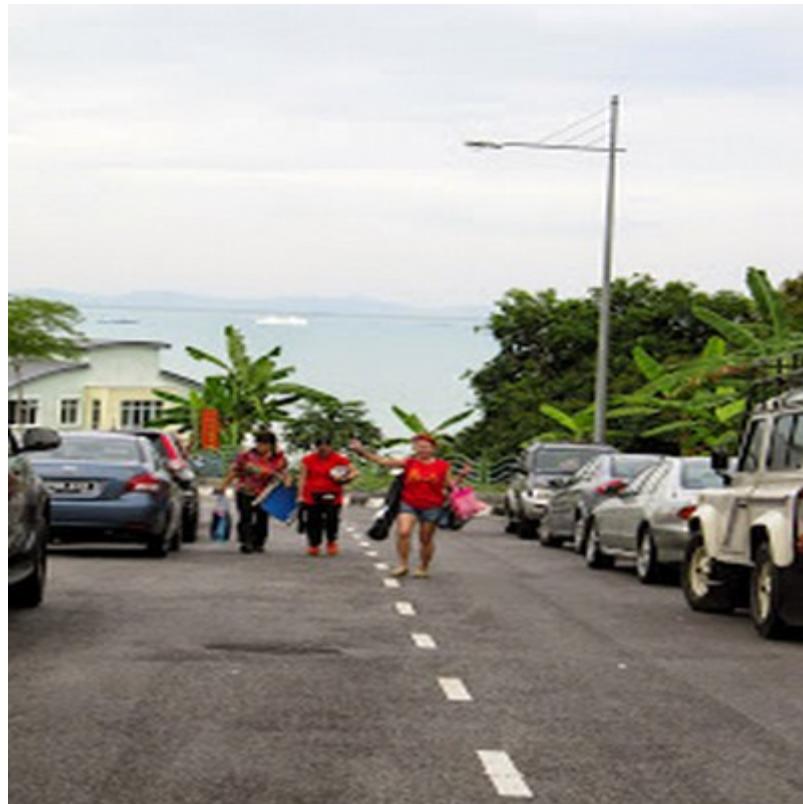

Just Beer.

Bon Voyage to Fancy Pants and Fancy Panties who we hope will be back later in the year.
