NEWSLETTER 2252

GM's Notes

It was a pleasant surprise to see Alexis at Mt. Pleasure to help set the run last Thursday as it has been some time now that she has done so. The Bunny, Francoise @ Kiss Me, had given me her run paper with her name and the month/year. The paper was yellow however and we knew that it would be difficult to see once it got dark.

After a short discussion we started the "On In" on the left hand side of the Indian Shrine. It had rained for the two previous nights and we were expecting some soggy ground but it had settled the ground well making it much easier to not only go up but down too. It didn't help me though as I fell 5 times and hence was looking quite mucky. The others teased me about the amount of detergent I must have bought before GST!!

We continued towards Beverly Hills before turning towards the "On Up". This area is fairly common ground as runs originating in Mt. Pleasure, Leader Garden, Shamrock Beach, Beverly Hills and Miami Green all touch upon it and hence when setting a run here one will almost always stray into one of these areas.

Since the paper was yellow we peppered it with white as well just in case it rained or it became dark. We soon hit old paper and we headed down to be back at the run site in about 2hrs 30mins.

The evening started a little slowly and by 6pm there were only about 25 members. However as the evening wore on the numbers swelled as the “Dinner Club” members slowly drifted in after the run had started. And we ended up having about 35. The breads, Hummus, Caribbean style chicken were delicious. A big thank you to Francoise for a lovely evening.

Next week we are at the same runsite this time being hosted by Tiny. She has promised a very different run so please come along and support.

On the 4 April 8 members attended the Ponggal Run organised by the Batang Monday hash. There are some photos and a write up at the end of the newsletter.

Circle:

1. We welcomed the guests Hari Hari Mau and Golden Cock. Unfortunately our other guest Oliver had gone.
2. We have a new member, Jennifer Teh. Welcome to the Harriets and long may you run with us.
3. Alexis charged Francoise with using yellow paper for setting the trail, which can be hard to see amongst the leaves, especially in the dark.
4. Alexis then charged Golden Cock, who is normally a front runner, with acting as a handbag to our new member Jennifer on the run.
5. The GM then iced Marco who was back in town once more just to say Hi and welcome.
6. The GM then charged Uncle Bee for helping to set the run after a period of 2 years.
7. The Bunny was then thanked for a good run and good food.

PONGGAL RUN 4 APRIL 2015

Eight members went for the Ponggal Run at the Chinese temple in Island Glades. Reaching there around 3pm it looked more like an Indian wedding celebration except for the sight of pots and sugar cane to signify Ponggal.

It was announced that there were to be two runs, medium and medium to long. Because we were there early Mike and I decided to get a head start as we wanted to do the long run and we are slow, so we sneaked in whilst no one was looking!!

The “On In” was by the side of the watertanks and initially we skirted a bit until the high rise apartment. From there it was a long steady climb to the ridge. On the ridge the papers separated. White for the shorter run and yellow (again) for the long run. We followed the yellow. It seemed like never ending skirting of the hills bordering the farms of Farlim, then a very tricky steep on down and more skirting before another long steady climb up back to the ridge through one of the farms. I was beginning to get tired by this time and the airless afternoon sun didn’t help either, especially on that side of the hill as there was little shade as the sun scorched your back and neck. There had been some fires and the trail lead through burnt patches of ground where your hands turned black every time you held on to a branch for support. Finally at the top we went along the ridge towards Bkt Gambir and then a long on down to come back out close to the Chinese temple once more. In all it took us 2hrs 20 mins so a good workout and certainly plenty of sweat!!

The turnout was reported as 150 participants and the atmosphere was fantastic. Lots of beer and whisky being imbibed in copious amounts and hunger sated by on-the-spot home cooked food which was absolutely delicious and the best I have had at a hash for some time. Not only that, there was plenty to go around and more on the way later in the evening! Such a big difference to another recently concluded event we went to. Music and songs filled the night air as the merrymaking continued. By 10pm Mike and I decided to call it a day and headed home after a fantastic run and even better food. Not to mention the beer and whisky!! A very good day and night indeed!!!!
