NEWSLETTER 2253

GM's Notes

Tina had promised a different run to the previous week and she was true to her word. The "On In" was next to the Indian shrine and carried on along the path. The hot humid evening seemed to hang in the air and any movement was sweat producing.

This week I was doing the run and as usual found myself at the back as others quickly passed me by. GL overtook me on the hill remarking how old he was feeling trying to catch up to Mother Hen, Beauty Queen and Silentman! At the back of me Eddie Punk was struggling and at one point asked "Are we still climbing?" The answer was "yes" as the paper turned to the left and UP!!

The usual latecomers, Longhair and Iceman, soon arrived and went quickly by leaving me alone and it was with a sense of relief when looking up that I saw Silentman patiently waiting for me as the others moved on to the "On Down".

Thinking this was the easy part, I relaxed as we had done this part last week but we soon realised that we were following the wrong paper and had to retrace our steps. We turned right towards Shamrock and made our way crossing streams and passing fallen bamboo. Thinking now that every turn would bring us home we found the trail continuing to go up and down and so we plodded on. Finally we hit the last part of the trail and once again had to retrace our steps as the paper went in a different direction but we were soon back after that.

Thinking we (Silentman and I) were the last, it was quite a surprise to find that Mother Hen and Beauty Queen, who were in front of us, were not yet back! Later the rain came and it was a drenched pair who finally made it home.

It was a short to medium run but gave a good workout and I only fell twice this week, so getting better....I hope. Thanks James for being patient and accompanying me.

Circle:

1. As always, we welcome any guests who wish to turn up and this week we welcomed: Ian and Michelle (Australia), Wendy, Golden Cock (Penang) Smiling Tiger and Oliver (UK).
2. The GM then put Mother Hen and Beauty Queen on ice for going off paper and getting lost.
3. Our old member Wind blew in to say hello and got iced for doing so!!
4. Our Bunny for the evening was the final icing. Thanks Tiny for a good run, good food and a great night!
