NEWSLETTER 2255

We all wish Datin Choo's husband a quick and full recovery from his sudden illness.

GM's Notes

We knew it would be a wet and slippery run as it had rained two days in a row. Tony Mido, a hasher from KL and a fellow tourist guide, joined us at Bee Gallery at the 'On Set'. I was using my very old shoes for hiking and the worn treads made it even harder.

The 'On In' was by way of the Indian Temple and then a left and climb to reach the 'normal' path that we usually take across the bridge. Even here we then veered left once more and started skirting up and down wet muddy slopes. Sai Seng and Tony had set off at a comfortable pace but soon I was lagging behind as I struggled with the slippery slopes and slippery shoes.

Up and down we went on both familiar and not so familiar slopes. As I looked up the top of the hill seemed a long way away. However with a determined effort and digging in, on all fours at times, I made the top. By that time Sai Seng and Tony had not only reached the top but had started laying paper on the 'On Down'. Going down was certainly easier and the three of us made good time. I thought at some point we would cross our 'On In' paper but we didn't as we veered left and on to the path back to the Indian temple where we exited.

In the evening an anxious Snow White waited eagerly to be told about the run as the Pack trickled in. Heavy rain arrived too, just as the run was about to start, causing one Member to 'head for home' instead of 'heading for the hills'.

The rain did stop after a while however and a beautiful balmy evening, full of food, beers and camaraderie, was enjoyed by all.

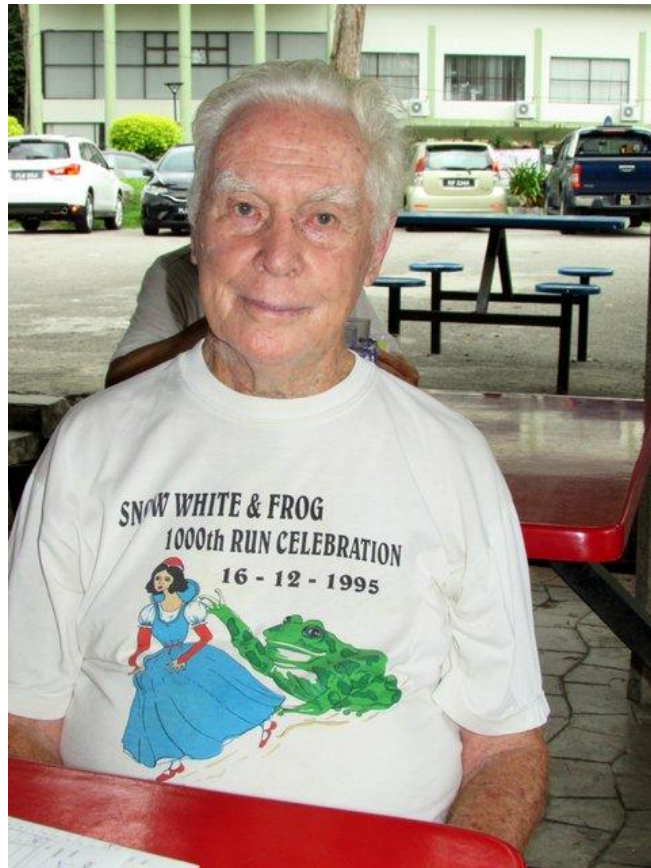

Thanks to Richard for hosting another very enjoyable evening.

Thanks also to Money with whom we celebrated his birthday, with even more beers.

Circle:

1. Guest Wendy had the honour of the first icing. Welcome.
2. Juicy 2 then appeared and iced for not wearing a hash T-shirt and as an ex-Harriet she should know better.
3. Just as the circle was getting going Pimp pulled in on his motor cycle just at the right time to cool his bum! She quizzed him about the run but he had some suitable answers!!!
4. The GM asked Molly to sit and regaled us about Molly being pictured in the newspaper as she is one of the very senior Girl Guides in the country.
5. Goodyear the charged Money for complaining whilst on the run. Money was mistakenly saying it was the same run as the previous Saturday and that it was wet and slippery. The GM commented that how he likes it!!
6. Michelle @ Michelin was busy talking during the circle about her run. She went to the playground at Youth Park and played on the swings and see-saw much to the apparent shock and chagrin of the children.
7. Just as the circle was about to thank the hare, Uncle Bee pulls up in her car. Being gracious the GM decided to wait for her to join the circle and then put her on ice for being late but having such good timing!!
8. The final icing of the evening was to thank the hare, Richard @ Snow White, for the evening's hosting. It was agreed to be a good run with good food. Snow White then gave himself a hash song with a cleaner version of 'On the Good Ship Venus' with the Pack singing the chorus. This is a long song and a good many verses were well sung by Richard. His legs may have gone but his mind certainly hasn't. Thanks Richard for the free beers, the evening's hosting and the great song.

Hare of the Day

Snow White

The ice is fine but I don't like the beer!!

Become less of the ex-Harriet and more of a HARRIET!!

You sure you didn't do the run????

In recognition of our 'Guiding' light!!

Money likes it wet and slippery!!

Michelin is still a kid at heart

Impeccable timing Uncle Bee!

Our grateful thanks to the Hare for a good run, good food, beers and a great song!

FUNNIES

Muldoon lived alone in the Irish countryside with only a pet dog for company. One day the dog died, and Muldoon went to the parish priest and asked, 'Father, my dog is dead. Could ya' be saying' a mass for the poor creature?'

Father Patrick replied, 'I'm afraid not; we cannot have services for an animal in the church. But there are some Baptists down the lane and there's no tellin' what they believe. Maybe they'll do something for the creature.'

Muldoon said, 'I'll go right away Father. Do ya' think £5,000 is enough to donate to them for the service?' Father Patrick exclaimed, 'Sweet Mary, Mother of Jesus! Why didn't ya tell me the dog was Catholic?'

An elderly man walks into a confessional. The following conversation ensues:

Man: 'I am 92 years old, have a wonderful wife of 70 years, many children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. Yesterday, I picked up two college girls, hitch-hiking. We went to a motel, where I had sex with each of them three times.'

Priest: 'Are you sorry for your sins?'

Man: 'What sins?'

Priest: 'What kind of a Catholic are you?'

Man: 'I'm Jewish.'

Priest: 'Why are you telling me all this?'

Man: 'I'm 92 years old . . . I'm telling everybody!'

An elderly man goes into a brothel and tells the madam he would like a young girl for the night. Surprised, she looks at the ancient man and asks how old he is.

'I'm 90 years old,' he says.

'90?' replies the woman. 'Don't you realize you've had it?'

'Oh, sorry,' says the old man. 'How much do I owe you?'

A woman was having a passionate affair with an Irish inspector from a pest-control company. One afternoon they were carrying on in the bedroom together when her husband arrived home unexpectedly.

'Quick,' said the woman to the lover, 'into the closet!' and she pushed him in the closet, stark naked. The husband, however, became suspicious and after a search of the bedroom discovered the man in the closet. 'Who are you?' he asked him.

'I'm an inspector from Bugs-B-Gone,' said the exterminator.

'What are you doing in there?' the husband asked.

'I'm investigating a complaint about an infestation of moths,' the man replied.

'And where are your clothes?' asked the husband.

The man looked down at himself and said, 'Those little bastards!'
