GM's Notes

The black clouds threatened rain and it started to drizzle as Sai Seng and I made our way up the drain at the right hand side of the Quarry and followed the path hoping that the wind would blow the rain clouds away.

Just as the climb began Sai Seng veered left and continued on an invisible path until we met the next possible 'On Up'. However he went down as though heading back but then turned right and skirted the hill instead. I had never been here and was making my way gingerly through compost and rocks. Then it was 'On Up' and the climb seemed to go on forever. It seemed like a virgin run to me except here and there I saw scraps of old paper from the Gisbert's run from last year.

Sai Seng had brought along his faithful cutter and duly put it to good use cutting away overhanging machine gun and other thorny branches to make the way easier for the later pack. We came across huge tree trunks with weird and wonderful shapes completely untouched by hash staples. The greenery was superb to look at.

After climbing for almost an hour we finally hit the path home. As the 'On In' and On Out' were the same Sai Seng made an arrow with paper to indicate the way down, thereby hoping no-one would go around again.

In the evening, the sun came out and it turned balmy. Kelvin, our ex-Harriet member set up the stove and got a table ready as Sai Seng was going to be the chef tonight!

Goodyear came out in 50 mins and the others trickled in piecemeal after that. One member DID miss the arrow and was half way on his second round before realising his mistake and turned back. Pimp was out in the light for once and even came out before the last batch of hounds. Kudos to him!!

As the 'Dinner Club' members showed up the numbers had swollen significantly and soon the smells of sizzling eggs, Nasi tomato and pork caused the mouths around to salivate. There was plenty of food and Chef Sai Seng did a wonderful job.

Thank you Sai Seng for the good run, great food and the free crates of beers! Another great night!

Thanks also to Money, who later in the evening, put on another free crate of beer.

Circle:

1. Andreas was a guest and the first to be welcomed for the night.
2. The second group was supposed to be the April birthday babies. Unfortunately only Anjalai and Money were there. Nevertheless the appropriate birthday cake and suitable song were presented.
3. The GM then charged 'The General' for skipping off home before the run last week when it was peeing down with rain!!
4. Goodyear then called Polish Piper to the ice and presented him with a Punjabi Kara (metal bracelet) which he has been promising for over a year. He also now calls him Helmut Singh!!
5. Next on ice were Pukka and Mem Sahib. Not only to welcome them back from their UK vacation but also to highlight that they developed Dengue whilst in the UK and spent several days enjoying the hospitality of the NHS!!
6. "Hare on Ice" was the next call! Many thanks to Sai Seng for all he does for the Hash and for the evening's hosting and being Chef!! Great beers too!!!
7. The last icings for the night were to congratulate Ding-a-Ling for achieving 100 'runs' and for being our youngest member and to Smiling Horse would achieved a fine 500 runs.
Congratulations to you both.

Finally our thoughts are with those victims and families affected by the Nepal earthquake. A number of our group have been to the very place and so must know firsthand the difficulties now facing the remaining population. If you would like to help, monetary donations can be given to Cheah (AML) and good clothing and other material things can be given to Rupiah.
