Newsletter 2259

GM's Notes

There are members and there are members! We have members who care about the Club and what goes on and participate and there are those who really don't give the Club a second thought and who thereby disrespect the other members. These type of members I put in the "Hall of Shame" since, as was the case this week, the member couldn't even be bothered to phone up and say he couldn't do his run. I don't know how we were supposed to find out, probably turn up on the night and find nothing happening I suppose but by a stroke of good fortune we did find out in time and hence we had a Committee Run at very short notice.

My trusted co-hare Sai Seng called to let me know that he was unable to set or come to the run as there was a sudden bereavement in the family (our sincerest condolences) and hence I turned to my other trusted co-hare Silentman to help me set. Last week's run was Silentman's run and it was a superb run but long and tough, so this week we decided to do a very simple short and sweet run.

We started in the Quarry by the drain in the right hand corner. Following the trail until crossing the small stream by the rocks when instead of continuing up the trail we turned left and down and skirted until we hit the Happy Hill trail where we turned right and followed it all the way to the top. Hitting the Link trail it took the pack down past the Rifle Range and exited at the pipe. So quite a short easy run! I later found out that those who found it too short either turned around at the bottom and did it again but in reverse or else conjured up extra distance by going via the Peace trail to exit at the pipe from further across and up. In all though there were no complaints on the night and all returned in the light.

I was quite relieved in the evening that the members had gotten the change of venue and I had no calls saying “Hey I’m at Air Itam. Where are you?” Alexis had kindly volunteered to cook Chinese Porridge and Cheng bought Beehoon with fried chicken for the non-porridge lovers! As it was mentioned in the last newsletter that in order to eat you had to bring your own bowl and spoon, many came with outsized bowls and someone even brought a small pot!! Alexis’s porridge is famous it seems!!

The delicious porridge and hot evening induced a lethargic stupor until we called the circle!!

Thanks to Silentman for co-haring. Alexis and Cheng for catering.

Circle

1. The guests this week were Wendy and Jennifer. However only Wendy was around at the circle and so we welcomed her once more to the run.
2. A charge from the floor by Goodyear brought Money to the ice for short-cutting on a very short run. It seems as GY reach the top of the hill Money was also reaching but from a different direction!!
3. The General then charged the GM for actually remembering his name this time instead of “you lah” as she did once before.
4. Money then charged the chef, Uncle Bee and complimented her on her very tasty “moi”.
5. Since it was a Committee run the Committee where called out to thank them for organising it all at short notice.
6. The GM then called Uncle Bee back to the ice to give her own thanks and those of the members for the delicious porridge.
7. The GM also revisited the ice for the third time when Speedhound called her to give thanks to her for doing all the organising for the run and even setting it too.
8. The GM then called upon her co-hare for the day Silentman to receive his thanks for helping out.
