GM's Notes

The weatherman had forecast rain for Thursday but that did not deter the 38 members and 9 guests gathering for the weekly Harriets run. Looking at the gathering clouds and no shelter at the runsite it was a pleasant surprise to see so many people. After the hare, Ronnie Tour, announced a short to medium run, the pack loped off with the usual FRBs out in front from the beginning.

As usual I was towards the back and seemed to be getting more towards the back as late comers, Iceman, Longhair and guest Hans, overtook me on the trail and I think it was a superb trail going up through rock and terraced ledges. As it had rained the night before the soil was wet and soft making it difficult to get a grip in places.

Mark, a guest and friend of Grasshopper who had long hopped on his way, was struggling and having to frequently stop to catch his breath. Beauty Queen and Silentman stayed back to accompany him, many thanks you two!! The trail went UP, then looped around before suddenly turning downwards.

Two of the THK guests, Dr. Bombay and Linda, were ahead of me but let me passed as I finally gather momentum coming down. Slow up but I am faster coming down!! The thunder rumbled every now and then just to remind us of the impending rain but up to now it had held off. I had just stepped back out on to the tar road and could see the dinner crowd and Datin doling out the Kuey Teow Soup and as I head towards them the first drops of rain began to fall. This quickly turned into a tremendous downpour together with high wind. Everyone ran towards their cars and some took it as an exit for the night, however the brave ones hung around and within 20 mins the rain had stopped and a nice pleasant evening ensued. The KT Soup was back on the stove for those still hungry or those not yet fed. Durians, jelly and Chai Boey were also to be had.

We had the circle as usual with Ronnie taking centre stage not only as the hare but for his singing too and free beer!! By the end of the night the numbers had risen to 47 members and 9 guests. The rains did return however, much later, but I think the evening was another successful Harriet night with the crowd staying until late.

Thanks for everything Ronnie.
