GM's Notes

Philip @ Dieu Lah Sing, who was the Hare of the Day, wanted a run only on track. He had a bad back but came along with Sai Seng and myself. His idea of a track was a straight hash highway track but what he got was a track that climbed and dipped; a path with roots holding the soil, rocks to negotiate and a long way down back home. Through it all though we didn't stop except for the very occasional 'catch your breath' time. The run went in on the right hand side and UP. Then up the steep part to the shooting range trail. Straight across this trail to pick up the Peace Trail, along here to the next cross roads where we turned left and headed down to pick up the black pipe and exit at the bottom.

Just as we were about to exit we observed a quite astonishing scene. A monkey had gathered a leaf and wrapped it around a stone. It then rubbed the stone on the pipe obviously extracting juice from the leaf. It then used the juice to rub on its thigh which we presumed was injured. As we approached the monkey in question and its brethren, they just blinked at us but did not scurry away.

On the way home Sai Seng must have decided he needed to emulate the monkey as he had an accident avoiding a careless car driver who turned without indicating causing him to come off his bike. However he needed more than some leaf extract as nasty and painful lacerations to his arm and elbow and a cut foot which required stitches was the result. But he still showed up for the night's activities even though he was limping and in pain. A true hasher!!

In the evening Goodyear had brought along a guest, Doreen to introduce her to Hashing and promptly 'unloaded' her on to an obliging Rupiah and they set off early, around 5.30pm. The rest of the pack with guests Oliver and Rob went on their way at 6.00pm.

About 50 mins later a sprinting Oliver reached the runsite. Ahhh the power of youth.....I remember it well!! The rest started to follow after that except for 5 of them, Silent Man, Smiling Horse, Rupiah, Good Licker and the guest Doreen.

It got dark and they still hadn't returned and then the phone went. It was Rupiah asking Money about the trail and that she was with GL coming down but they didn't have a light as her torch wasn't working!! "Where were the others?" was the question, "Far behind" was the reply "as the guest was very slow but James and Vithia were looking after her."

Money and Goodyear went off to fetch Rupiah and GL and guide them back and then around 8.45pm a very tired looking Doreen with James, Vithia and Goodyear who went back in again with torch and 100+, finally arrived back at the runsite. Thank you to both James and Vithia for being so patient and ensuring the guest got back safely.

Because of the late hour the pack had dwindled but had partaken of delicious fare provided by the Hare and home cooked by his other half, Alice. Thanks for a very interesting evening Philip, good run, astonishing nature, delicious food and even though I don't drink Tiger, the free beers you generously gave out. We did have a short circle however.

Circle

1. HAPPY BIRTHDAY to our August born members. Unfortunately only Rupiah and Take Care were present but HB to all.
2. We welcomed our guests for the evening but as Oliver had already left and Doreen was catching her breath Rob @ Shit in a Pit did the honours and warmed the ice.
3. The GM then did call Doreen out to sit on the ice in recognition that this was her first hash and despite being slow she actually finished the whole thing and was even thinking of coming back!! Kudos to her!! She was advised however to be better prepared next time!! The Harriets are a 'Mother Hash' once again!!
4. Rupiah then charged Goodyear. Firstly for foisting his guest on to others and not taking care himself. Secondly for not preparing her properly as she had no water or torch nor was it explained to her what was expected!
5. The GM then charged Money. His crime was that he didn't check Rupiah's torch before the run. If he had he would have found it not working and would not have had to go and guide her back. His excuse was that he didn't expect her to be so long for such a simple run!!
6. Our Hare of the Day, Dieu Lah Sing, was thanked for providing a good run, delicious food and the ever important free beers!! Thanks Philip.

I take this opportunity on behalf of the Club to wish several of our ex-members a swift and full recovery from their various illnesses. We are thinking of you.

I will be on vacation for September. Please support your Committee who will carry on all the good work.
