On Sec's Notes

It is good to be back. We underestimated the Penang traffic and rush hour at the Green Lane area and arrived at the hash site 10 minutes late. No one was around except Snowy pottering around the hash site. I later caught up with the rest of the veteran hashers and joined them walking round the nearby Park. The GM and a few of the regular hashers were away for the invitation hash run in Butterworth. A small turnout of 22 hashers with no guests. It was a medium to long run with slippery ups and downs. First runner, Take Care was back at 7.15p.m. Delicious fried rice with fried chicken and sausages were enjoyed by all. Many thanks to the Hare, GL for the food and good run. Circle was brought to a quick end with the roar of thunder and lightning threatening a heavy downpour. Many thanks also to VGM for taking care of the Newsletter in our absence.

CIRCLE

1. Take Care was iced for MIA. His excuse was pain in his leg but he is seen regularly at the Pi Saturday run and helps in setting most of the runs. He was also the first runner back in today's run. An encouraging word from the VGM to come more often and support the Harriets.
2. Cheng & Frank welcomed back after three weeks in the Oz outback.

3. Iceman called AML & Cheng to the Circle but Cheng was the one put on ice. Both were chattering and when met by Iceman who commented on not wearing a hash T-shirt, Cheng off the mark answered that she is wearing a hash T-shirt but that remark was meant for AML who came in her office frock.
4. Hugh earned his 200th run minus the mug which was promised for the next run.
5. The Hare GL was thanked for a good run and delicious fried rice.
