GM's Notes

Chief Hare Sai Seng, Hare of the Day Fancy Pants, together with Mother Hen and myself, set off down the hill to set the run for the evening. It had been decided not to go the usual way in, up the cliff face, but to go past the watertank and turn left. Great in planning but the area was a rubbish tip!!! It was strewn everywhere and one had to be careful negotiating the broken tiles, dried cement and other 'builders rubbish' as well as the 'other' rubbish too.

Once through that however it was left climbing the hill a little as the usual bush and wild boar 'playgrounds' opened up in front of us to connect with the usual path. Up the path a bit more and then right towards Mount Pleasant. In order not to disturb the PH3 50th Anniversary paper we kept on the lower ledge traversing the hill. However we couldn't miss it all and we did criss-cross it on times as they too used the same hill. The Hare had printed his own special 'Fancy Pants' Run' paper which helped a lot and this we laid in clear view all the way up the long climb to the top of the ridge. Then it was over the now decayed log until we hit the downward path taking one to Leader Garden/Beverley Hills.

Down we went here, then left partway to get back across to Shamrock. It has been quite some time since we used this path and the absence of paper was noticeable. The farm towards the bottom was deserted but the dogs were still around although they ran off as we approached. It's longer than you think this downward stretch but we shouldn't complain as I understand the whole area is earmarked for yet more development and hence access will be impossible in the future and yet another runsite and trails will be closed to Hashing forever!!!!

Despite the hazy evening the usual hardcore hashers gathered and as they walked down the road Samy arrived in time to slake the thirst of the beer drinkers mooching around the runsite. Fifty minutes later Money and Black Condom reappeared together and remarked how they had had a good workout. But where was Goodyear?? The other began to arrive too and low and behold Goodyear sauntered in along with Tiny. The last to return was Ian around 7.30pm when it was dark but he was saying that it was only at the end to cross the stream that he needed his torch, so the carrots must be doing him some good!!

Tasty Nasi Lemak was the food of the evening and alongside free beers given by the Hare it made for another great Harriet night. Many thanks Fancy Pants!!

Circle

1. Speed Hound and Huge were the first to cool their bums as they were rewarded for their achievements in reaching 1100 runs (SH0) and 200 runs for Huge. Congratulations to you both.
2. A charge from the floor saw Iceman bring Black Condom to the ice. The heinous crime of not joining up the bar was found proven!!
3. The Goodyear and Money comedy show continues with the latest episode. There was no initial oath swearing at the beginning this week but each charged each other with SCBing. However both could prove they did the whole run. So they both sat on the ice!!
4. Silentman should have stayed silent!! He went to Charlie market for the run but in Hash nothing stays secret for long!!
5. Fancy Pants then charged Black German with having dementia. Apparently BG was heading for Bee Gallery as he hadn't been reading the venue changes in the Newsletter but found himself at Charlie Market. Both of course the WRONG venue anyway!!
6. Fancy Pants, as the hare of the Day, was then suitably thanked for a GOOD run, GOOD food and FREE BEERS!! Thanks Theo.

PH3 had their 50th Anniversary run last Saturday the 24th October. What a great achievement! Over 20 Harriet members signed up through us and others were there representing their other Chapters. I understand there were over 500 people registered. There were 3 runs, the longest reaching over to Moonlight Bay and was adjudged to be around 11 KM long. The food was good and there was plenty of beer to cool the thirsty and some heavy rain to cool the hot ones!! The party went on until late into the night although some of us skipped off a bit earlier.

Congratulations to PH3 on reaching your wonderful milestone!!
