GM's Notes

It was a wet, WET evening and everybody was warned how slippery it would be. The brave ones went forth in the teeming rain and did the run. The ones with umbrellas chose to go around the gardens and the hashers who felt their priority was to keep dry, did just precisely that by staying under the cover.

The rain poured, the wind sprayed the rain even under cover and in the midst of it all the numbers swelled. In keeping with the Diwali / Deepavali spirit new clothes were given (T-shirts), simple food and subsidised beer. There was a sea of blue T-shirts as people ate, drank, had tit-bits, gossiped and ate some more! The early evening was good but the night was even better.

In the end we had 40 members and 4 guests.

A big, big thank you to all our Indian members who contributed to the evening and made it happen. It was a really great night!!

Circle

1. The first in the circle but not iced, were the runners from last week's run who completed it all. It was touted as a short to medium run but all agreed it was a long run!!
2. When it rains the ground gets wet and often soggy. Not the place to have a car then on even a slight incline as Molly found to her cost. Fortunately the boys and a Land Rover came to the rescue!
3. In celebration not only for Diwali but for an ex GM's birthday the Diwali gang and Tiny were called next for acknowledgment. Being true hashers Tiny took the seat!! Thank you and happy birthday Tiny.
4. It is always nice to have guests and this week we had four. Shit in the Pit, Juicy 2, Tony (USA) and Catherine (KL). For some reason Juicy 2 was missing from the photo!!
5. It is good to praise people who do good things and hence the GM called out the VGM Speedhound to do just that. She has been great at stepping in at the last moment when the GM has not been around and to make sure all goes off smoothly. We all appreciate it.
6. Sai Seng charged the GM for bringing up incidences from last week. Any excuse really to ice the GM.
7. Another charge from Black German brought Snow White and Mini Sausage to the ice. The charge was for not wearing the Diwali T-shirt given on the evening. Mini, however, turned the tables as he WAS wearing his but underneath another t-shirt!! Snow White however was guilty as charged!!
8. The final thank you for the night went to the generous hosts, our Indian members, for a wonderful evening. Thanks for the run, great food, subsidised beer and of course for the great T-shirt.
