GM's Notes

The first run in December and already the Hashers are dwindling. The festive season is upon us once more and even the Dinner Club members have disappeared. It seems only dedicated Hashers come week after week now to do their exercise and avail themselves, like me, of the camaraderie and fellowship.

It also looks like Charlie Market's days are numbered as many of you have seen, with the disappearance of a large part of the highway. It was a shock to see having been at the market not too long ago. Just as the cars and jams on the roads make it a challenge to reach any runsite these days, it is a headache even finding hash venues or trails due to all the hill cutting in the name of 'progress'.

Unfortunately the hare of the day, Handyman, couldn't be at the start of the run due to work commitments but did come later, as did several others who helped to swell the numbers. The run started before the rains and I hoped it would stay dry until all were back. We nearly made it! When the rains did come only two people were left to return and they did safely not long afterwards.

The short circle we had was quite difficult as the rains lashed down and made a terrific din on the tin roof. It was so loud that at times I couldn't hear my own voice and I thank Tiny for helping me out as my voice finally gave way.

Many thanks to Endiran for the evening's hosting; the run, the food and the free crate of beer!

Next week we are at the Shop Lots in Lembah Permai 1 for Hair Do's run. I hope to see you all there once more.

Circle

1. Welcome to an old Harriet member, Inspector Gadget, who unfortunately spends most of his time in KL these days. You're always welcome at the Harriets Alex.
2. As the rains poured down, the GM called for Speedhound to be iced. The charge bringing the rains from India to Penang. She is intending to go to India quite soon but as you all probably know Chennai in particular is severely flooded.
3. The GM then charged Mother Hen and Akz Hole with coming together late to the hash and wanting to know how they 'happened' to be together!! But a Gentleman never tells!!!
4. Another charge from the floor saw Goodyear charge Money Manfred. At the start of the run Money set off at a fast pace only to fall in the drain which is where Goodyear came across him. We are just happy he wasn't hurt.....well maybe his pride a little.
5. A second charge from Goodyear saw our usually missing On Cash on the ice. Apparently the night before at a social gathering she was full of sound and laughter but tonight at the hash she was as quiet as a church mouse.
6. Black Condom was next to cool his bum. Members wanted to know the origin of his name. Easy really he used to work in a condom factory. As a Tester?
7. Iceman was upset that the Hash Highway was being cut away. He wanted to make his frustration known to the CM of Penang and ask for answers as to why? So two lookalikes in G-Man and Take Care were called in place. Unfortunately they, like the CM, knew nothing about it!! Or so they said!! Typical politicians!!
8. The last icing of the evening was of course the Hare of the Day, Handyman. Grateful thanks were given for the run, the food and the free crate of beer.

If anyone would like to have a nice hot lemon with serai tea try this place at Bonsai

Welcoming back Inspector Gadget

This ice is not very comfortable

Together, again?

Fished out of a drain before rain washed poor Money away

For once, silence from the ice

Why black condom?

CM on ice?

A song for the Handyman

Thanks for the beer

And the food
