Newsletter 2288

GM's Notes

Before I go any further I would like to offer my apologies to two of our members who had golden birthdays last week. They were both on the 8th and one was 70 years young and the other 75 years young. They are of course Molly and Huge. Why I forgot to make special mention at the circle I don't know but no doubt you'll put me on ice for it next time. I hope you both had a lovely day and HAPPY BIRTHDAY.

As for the run day itself it was a beautiful one with clear blue skies. We had a total of 6 guests comprising 3 Aussies, 1 Pilipino and our own Shit in the Pit and Smiling Tiger. The ground was soft because of the incessant rains we have been having and so it was decided to make it a fairly short run. In the end it turned more into short to medium which skirted the hill and came out near some waste ground away from the construction. It wasn't too strenuous really and even Huge surprised himself by escorting one of our guests ALL the way around and later in the evening Rose @ Semen Sucker, was seen jogging around the neighbourhood. But it gave everyone a good sweat!!

Unfortunately the Bunny, Hair Do, couldn't make the run due to an emergency but she did bring the food and I thank her for hosting the evening 'in absentia'.

Circle

1. Welcome our guests. The 4 international guests were here visiting on a yacht and were off the next day to Langkawi. We hope they pass this way again.
2. Camel Toe was iced next as she has been MIA for most of the year and we heard that she doesn't want to be a member next year as she says she is too busy. But how are you going to stay young and fit??
3. Iceman then asked Molly and Kim Looi to step forward and instructed everyone to have a good look at them. Since they were not alike he charged the newsletter editor with a failure to recognise them and put the wrong names to the photos in last week's newsletter. Fortunately the editor wasn't there so the GM was made to take the punishment.
4. Shit in the Pit was then called to the ice by the GM. She interrogated him on his whereabouts and why doesn't he rejoin as a member next year as he will be around in Penang and he owes a run to the club. It must have worked as he said he would rejoin ...but he hasn't paid the money yet!!!
5. Posh turned up late and was sitting at the back but that didn't deter the GM from icing her for not running more these days and the GM wanted her to sing her beer song (which she did later on).
6. A little bird told the GM that one of the guests, Semen Sucker, although very fit, tried to run up the hill but had to stop short as it is impossible, unless you're a goat. I think she quickly learned that Penang hills are tough and to treat them with respect!
7. With the Bunny missing, a lookalike was needed. As Uncle Bee was looking after the food throughout the evening it was thought no better person could be chosen to receive the thanks of the members on behalf of the Bunny.
8. Just when you thought it was all over, the GM sprung a last icing and called out Iceman and Camel Toe as they had apparently been yakking all through the circle.

On Saturday some of the members attended the PSC Inaugural Invitation Hash. There are some photos at the end of the newsletter and more on the website.

Don't forget next week is the Christmas Run at Shamrock (or Mount Pleasure if it is raining). Please also remember to bring your own plates and utensils as they will not be provided.
