GM's Notes

Christmas Eve and everyone and anyone who lives in Penang know of the jams and crawl to Batu Ferringhi or other popular spots on the Island. However this did not deter 2 guests from Dhaka and 2 new members from joining the 20 odd gathering on that day. There was a marked absence of crowds at Bee Gallery and definitely a holiday mood.

For Harpreet @ DKG and Jill @ Screwed Driver it was their first visit to Penang and hence their first time in hashing our hills. As Dhaka is quite flat they were umming and arring about whether to just go for a walk in the gardens or do the climb and kudos to them they both decided to 'hit the hills'. Just before the run, our last week's guests Rosalind and Ian, joined us as members for 2016 and we are very happy that they have decided to be a part of our hash family. Welcome. The rest of the group came by motorbike or from less crowed areas of Penang and so it was a small but pleasant group who started the run.

Earlier in the day Sai Seng had phoned to say he was sick and so it was Akz Hole and I who went off to set the evening's run. It was a relatively straight forward run but as we were also 'not too well' it did take some time for us to drag ourselves up the various hills and lay the paper. However it gave us and the rest a great workout and sweat. I must admit though that coming down Lily Pond these days is quite a feat and standing at the top of some sections looking down one does wonder how on earth one get down other than backwards and hanging on tightly to the ropes thankfully in place.

In the evening Rupiah took both Rosalind and Jill under her wing and together they negotiated the whole run (GOOD FOR THEM), whereas Silent Man and Smiling Horse looked after DKG but prudently turned back at the second climb since they reasoned that they would not have enough time to get down before darkness fell. For Money and Ian, it was a breeze of a run as it was too for Pussycat. Toddy did it in his own time as with GL and others. Longhair arrived late and went off to do his thing and the rest took their usual walks around the Gardens. So all did something on the night, which is very commendable.

There was a miscommunication regarding the food and so the Bunny, Kim Looi, went off to rustle up a variety of food which was served as hot as it was delicious. There was watermelon and cake too. A wonderful Christmas Eve feast!

Some members came from the Batu Ferringhi direction and they were busily checking their Waze during the evening as the traffic built and built and built! Stretching back way past the Copthorne along the coast road, back along Permai. All heading to Batu Ferringhi! Even closer to home the traffic along Utama, Gottlieb was solid and very slow moving. There being nothing for it but to stay, chill out, drink beer and chat was the rest of the evening's activity. Coupled with a lovely light cooling breeze and an almost full moon it was a very pleasant night.

Harpreet and Jill had brought along some T-shirts from their Hash Club and gave them out to those who sizes they had, which was a lovely gesture. We had our usual short circle and closed it this week with a rendition of the Hash Hymn.

Circle

1. Welcome our guests. DKG and Screwed Driver from Dhaka. First time Penang hashing, they thoroughly enjoyed the evening and Jill completed the run!!
2. Rosalind and Ian have now moved here and after last week's run became our newest members for 2016. Welcome to the family!
3. Money had a charge from the floor against Goodyear. However GY wasn't around and so Smiling Horse had the honour of being the lookalike. The charge was about the run and how come GY didn't pass Money this week. 'Ahh' was the reply 'I was looking after a guest and we had to turn back!' 'Condemned by his own mouth' says Money 'SCBing once again!!'
4. Longhair was next to be iced. His crime? Completing 600 runs. Congratulations. He may come late but he does do the run!!
5. The Bunny of the Day Kim Looi was thanked most graciously for the evening's hosting. The food was great and varied; the run tough enough. Even the weather was delightful. Many thanks Kim Looi for taking up this date, we know it wasn't easy for you and you have our gratitude.
6. The last icing saw Akz Hole seated on the Ice Throne. The GM regaled the day's events when setting the run, with Akz Hole complaining about not being well, it being too tough blah blah blah, but he did set it. The GM also thanked him for doing many things behind the scenes that no one ever knows about.

2016 Subs are now due. Please don't expect the On Cash to chase you.
Do the right thing and seek her out to pay!!
