GM's Notes

As most Hashers saw the devastation of the farm area by the stream was complete and finding a way in was only by pushing through the vegetation. Up and onwards we climbed on familiar paths that seemed all too unfamiliar these days (I am sure Huge would have been completely at home here). Sai Seng set a trail which led up and down wet ground, dry and prickly fronds eventually leading up the top end of the path before heading back down on the trail to the run site. A relatively easy trail!

In the evening both Sai Seng and I were late arriving and the pack had already left. Iceman and Speed Hound arrived late too and quickly sped on their way. Not being there at the off I'm not sure if a pact was set this week between Goodyear and Money regarding who would SCB but Goodyear emerged first followed not long after by Money and M&S. The others followed in due course, all that is except Tiny.

Just then Uncle Bee arrived saying she saw Tiny at Beverley Hills, obviously having missed the turn once again. Tiny wouldn't take up UB's offer of a lift as she was "too sweaty" she said but "please get Huge to come and pick me up" which of course he did.

With everyone back delicious slices of homemade bread, lavishly spread with hummus, were given out by Kiss Me and Kissing(h)er, quickly followed by the dinner gong. Akz Hole then arrived followed much later by a returning Spermwhale.

Once everyone had sated themselves on the very tasty food we had our usual short circle.

Circle

1. First on the ice was Tiny for coming out at Leader Garden and not properly following paper.
2. She was quickly followed by Iceman who also was NOT on the correct paper but on Monday's and Tuesday's NOT however Thursday Harriets.
3. The finger was pointed at Viking for leading them astray but he was just really saying to Iceman that Tiny was not very far in front, not knowing of course that Tiny had missed the paper and was heading off into the sunset. Iceman therefore did likewise. Viking on the other hand followed paper and completed his first run for 9 MONTHS!! Well done!
4. The GM then called out Take Care for calling her during setting wanting to know the run site for the evening.
5. When the GM asked the assembled members "how was the run" Polish Piper answered "good run". Knowing full well he didn't do any run he was asked to come and sit and tell us about the run.
6. Sai Seng was next as a thank you for the efforts he makes week in week out in setting runs. (Where would we be without both him and the GM???....Ed.)
7. The final icing of the evening was of course for the Hare of the Day Kissing(h)er. A great night, great and varied food and very good weather!! Thanks Mark.

The Chef

I went that way, the pack went the other way . . . why so?

Botak twins

Huge, exit stage right . . .

. . . leaving poor Tiny to face an icing

So why are Harriets running on Monday?

Hey! This is Thursday . . . no iced water!

I'm so happy, so happy . . . to be on ice

Good RUN. Good beer. Good food.

Again, a run thanks to Sai Seng
