GM's Notes

Dieu Lah Sing decided not to come to set the run which meant that I was alone with two fast FRBs but I was relieved to see that both waited for me many times as I stopped to catch my breath! Thanks guys!!

We went through the deserted 'bungalow' by the PBA and continued up the rocks keeping to the left side of the stream. We skirted along rocks and ledges which spoke of cultivation not so long ago. Soon we found ourselves on the path going up which has been done many times before but this time we came from a different angle. Past the boulders and onwards and upwards we went until we came to the marker crossing on the DAP trail and then it was downwards and homewards! On the way down we met with one of the local representatives resting on one of the boulders but after a brief word we travelled on. The exit was new to me as it has now been necessary to deviate from the old one since the construction area has extended so far as to now have the old exit cordoned off!

In the evening we had our regular guests Peter and Susan once again in attendance (they are here until July I think) and a family of four virgin hashers. Most of the runners found the run routine but there was a 'bite' at the end of the run in the shape of a very fit 'fighting' cock who attacked almost all of the hashers as they passed by. Peter in particular was seemingly singled out as it not only chased him but bit him quite severely several times despite his self defence, causing painful gashes on his legs. He later went for a tetanus shot just in case! Samy headed out to see what he could do just as Take Care was also being attacked. Taking TC's stick Samy flailed about as he too was subjected to the 'fighting' spirit of the cock. Finally it was chased into the bush and the rest of the hashers came back unscathed! The cock was later caught by a couple of locals who released it in some other area. I pity the people there if they come across it!! To watch it from afar was quite hilarious seeing the cock jumping and the hashers flailing about trying to defend themselves but I do feel sorry for Peter who bore the brunt of the attack and ended up with bloody oozing wounds. That wasn't funny!

Most arrived back in the light but two of the Virgin hashers took their time coming back in the growing darkness accompanied by Botak Chin and Grasshopper. Thanks guys! When all were safely returned the home made food was wolfed down, accompanied by custard puffs courtesy of birthday girl Grandma.

Thanks Money for a good run, great food and for subsidizing 6 crates of beers.

Circle

1. Welcome the guests: Peter & Susan, Carol, Alan, Christian & Jesse, and Wendy.
2. The GM then called out Handyman to receive his 100th run award. It only took him 11 years!!!
3. Grandma is a very special lady to the Harriets as well as being our oldest active member. It was her birthday the previous day and so we took the opportunity to recognise it with a special birthday cake. As we also had a number of other June birthday members around too so we asked them to join in the birthday treat too. Happy Birthday to ALL of you.
4. Calvin Lee has been running with us for some weeks now and has decided he likes what we do and so became our latest Member. Welcome to the family Calvin!! During Calvin's introduction Spermwhale just kept talking and so the GM asked him to cool his bum also.
5. A charge from the floor by Michelle saw Grasshopper on the ice. But this was to thank him for staying with her guests and helping them to finish the run.

6. Another charge from the floor this time by Imposter saw Beauty Queen on the ice. Her crime was seemingly not having enough sex as she is always taking selfies and posing for the cameras of others!
7. The GM then called out Akz Hole for being disruptive in the circle and making fun of her not so loud voice on this night! Naughty Naughty!
8. The last icing was of course to give thanks to the Hare of the Day, Money Manfred. Thanks for a good run, great food and the subsidized beers.

FUNNIES

An Irishman went into the confessional and said to his priest, 'I almost had an affair with another woman.'

The priest said, 'What do you mean, almost?'

The Irishman said, 'Well, we got undressed and rubbed together, but then I stopped.

The priest said, 'Rubbing together is the same as putting it in.

You're not to see that woman again. For your penance, say five Hail

Mary's and put £50 in the poor box.'

The Irishman left the confessional, said his prayers, and then walked over to the poor box.

He paused for a moment and then started to leave.

The priest, who was watching, quickly ran over to him saying, 'I saw that. You didn't put any money in the poor box!'

The Irishman replied, 'Yeah, but I rubbed the £50 on the box, and according to you, that's the same as putting it in!'

There once was a religious young woman who went to Confession. Upon entering the confessional, she said, 'Forgive me, Father, for I have sinned.'

The priest said, 'Confess your sins and be forgiven.'

The young woman said, 'Last night my boyfriend made mad passionate love to me seven times.'

The priest thought long and hard and then said, 'Squeeze seven lemons into a glass and then drink the juice.'

The young woman asked, 'Will this cleanse me of my sins?'

The priest said, 'No, but it will wipe that smile off of your face.'
