On-Sec's Notes

The usual crowd gathered for the Circle to be called by the VGM. A standard run was expected until Silent Man, the Hare, announced that it was a long run and please bring your torch with you. Of course, there were sounds of excitement from the Circle as they heard for once words coming from Silent Man.

There were two guests: Alan Tan, GM from Tuesday's Hash Kakis who came specially to invite all to their 15th Anniversary Run (details below) on 16 September and his good friend from KL, Captain Wong aka Shipstirrer.

On behalf of the Cancer society On Sec thanked all those who donated generously towards the Relay for Life. A total of Rm826 was collected.

There were 24 members. Most went towards the fence and up the hill but the regular seniors did their usual walk towards Beverly Hills and when they came back moans of more development and definitely not possible to use that hill, which was once our hashing site.

It was not a long run after all as the first runner, guest Captain Wong was back in 55 mins and all were back before dark. Silent Man served his signature dish chicken curry (cooked by himself) served with Bengali bread. The usual drinking and socialising continued with a couple of dinner clubbers turning up. A big thank you to Silent Man for the delicious food and good run.

OUR CONDOLENCES FROM ALL THE HASHERS AND HARRIETS TO RENATA OVER THE DEMISE OF HER MOTHER AND ALSO NICK LOW (FORMER TUESDAY'S HASH KAKIS) ON THE DEMISE OF HIS MOTHER.

Circle

1. Welcome the guests, Alan Tan and Captain Wong.

2. Money Manfred was called to sit on ice for making too much noise all the way during the run. Everyone concurred with remarks from General saying like a Chinese coffee shop, especially on Silent Man's Run.

3. Helmut was welcomed back minus the wife but it was not a good holiday for him. He had to drive a total of 4000km to Renata's home after the demise of her mother. Again, our condolences.

4. The Hare, Silent Man, was iced with a rendition of Xmas Silent Night Holy Night's song. It was a medium run and not a long one and no torches needed.   He was just being cautious. A big thank you for the delicious food and run.

5. Finally an announcement to remind everyone to support the Hash Kakis Anniversay Run.
