GM's Notes

Thinking we would get caught in the traffic, we left early only to find ourselves the first to arrive at the run site. Dieu Lah Sing arrived shortly afterwards to be followed by Botak Chin and Michelle and then Grandma. Akz Hole and DLS decided to start early as they were saying they were too slow these days and so I waited as the rest of the evening's runners trickled in over the next 30 mins with two guests, Harvey Whorebanger (PIH2) and Alison (THK) also turning up.

As usual being last I was grateful for Silent man's company as we followed the trail. We have done this trail many times in the past as it wound its way upwards towards the black water pipe.

Being slow didn't help even though the On Up was relatively easy, as I still got out of breath (I make not having hashed for a month as the reason..haha). A surprise awaited us at the top however for instead of the usual left turn to go along the pipe we crossed over and went straight following a new trail which initially skirted the hill before turning downwards.

We were in virgin territory and it was difficult and steep in places but not impossible but we finally came to the viaduct and the long walk home along the tar road in the PBA area. Having short legs didn't help either as I wondered how to climb across the shallow water as the wall of the viaduct was chest high but somehow I managed to scramble up and over. By the time we returned to the runsite it was 8.10pm, dark and we were the last to return.

The wonderful aroma of roast pork with apple sauce, mashed potato, veggie korma, fried chicken and cold slaw greeted us. The jungle drums must have earlier been at work since the crowd had also increased substantially from the start of the run but that is usual, especially when iceman is cooking!! Thanks to Iceman for a great run and delicious home cooked food.

As time was getting late and the natives restless we had a quick circle.

Circle

1. The first to be called to the ice by the GM were the committee. They were thanked by the GM for doing such a good job in running the Club whilst she was away and she was very appreciative of having them as fellow Committee members. Unfortunately Counterfeit was missing on the evening but the remarks apply to her also. Thank you all.
2. Get a life was being sung as Kim Looi was presented with her award for achieving 1200 runs!! A fantastic achievement by any standards and a very loyal Harriet member for many years. CONGRATULATIONS!!
3. Polish Piper was next to be iced. This was in recognition of his hosting of the previous week's run. As usual the run was fairly straight forward but the home cooked feast was more than due reward for those members who went the 'extra mile' and crossed the bridge to go to his run. Thanks Helmut.
4. A charge from the floor saw Speedhound put the GM on ice. The charge was having new shoes, which is surprising for an experienced hasher to do. Akz Hole tried to excuse by saying they were not new as they had been used in trekking up the mountains whilst on holiday but the members were having none of that and so the punishment was meted out according in due fashion.
5. Geeman then charged Speed hound with liking 'hard men'. It was something to do with Speedhound liking Nadal who she says plays hard. Then it transpired that after last week's run Speedhound disappeared for 2 hrs perhaps to have a hard time!! But it was all very confused!!

- 6. The circle then greeted our sole remaining guest of the evening Harvey Whorebanger who normally runs with PIH2 but has run with the Harriets a few times now. Please come again.
- 7. "Hare On Ice" called the GM before thanking Iceman for his great run and very delicious food.

An update on Anchor Lim, who by the way, is an old Harriet member. He is still in a very serious condition but we all are hoping for a full recovery. Many Chapters within the Hash community are collecting donations to help with his medical expenses and next week at the run we will also pass the hat around for any donation you wish to make. Please note this is a donation freely given and amounts given by individuals will be confidential.
