GM's Notes

The rain earlier in the day could only mean that the ground would be soft or muddy or both!! With the on and off drizzle, hashers and guests gathered at the shop lots waiting for the start.

The rain or perhaps the cooler evening, seem to also bring out members who had been absent for a while and it was great to see them back once again. After the usual introduction of the guests and spiel from the GM, the pack loped off with the Hare's instructions ringing in their ears 'it's slippery'!!! After they had left the Hare/chef of the evening then set about getting dinner prepared!!

It was supposed to be a short run and indeed by distance (2.4Km) it was but the wet ground and slippery slopes saw the first runner Speed Hound, hotly being pursued by The General, back in an hour and five minutes with the tell tale signs of a mud bath on her behind!! The rest trailed in over the next hour with the earlier starters taking two hours to complete. All were covered in mud and all agreed it was a short run but very challenging both going up and down!

The dinner gong went and the dinner crowd swelled. Hashers mingled, gossiped, ate had seconds, thirds before the drizzle went and we had the circle.

Many thanks to Botak Chin for a slippery, muddy run but a great workout and the on the spot cooked pasta with bolognase sauce.

Circle

1. Here's to our guests they're true blue. Our usual welcome to them all and sincerely meant!! Please come and run with us again. Anytime!!
2. Normally early starters tell the GM they are going in. Today no-one did and there were about 5 of them. As Dieu Lah Sing normally goes in early and normally tells someone, he failed to do so today and had the pleasure of being harangued by the GM for his laxness!
3. "Happy Birthday to you August babies". Unfortunately there were only 2 of the 5 in attendance but the cake was just enough for all!! Happy Birthday to all our August Babies!!
4. The GM then charged Michelle and scolded her for defacing her run card. Apparently she wants to spell her name differently because of Feng Shui.
5. Another charge from the floor saw Michelle continue to sit on the ice as Call Girl related how one of the guests, Miss Chinatown, had to pay a RM10 guest fee when she thought she was invited by the hare!!
6. Counterfeit was missing in action last week when the GM gave her thanks to the Committee for looking after the Club whilst she was on vacation. But as you know the GM has a good memory and so Counterfeit had the pleasure of her thanks this week instead.
7. 'Hare on Ice' was the call as thanks were given to Botak Chin for a slippery challenging run and good food. Many thanks Ian J.

Just a reminder: If, as the Hare/Bunny of the day, you do invite guests to the run please inform the On Cash, then she won't harass them for money!!!

See you next week at Twin Towers (the other end of Leader Garden) for Mother Hen's run.
