GM's Notes

There was some confusion regarding the runsite as the Bunny mentioned Twin Towers but actually it was Beverly Hills, so Counterfeit and Michelle were at the bottom directing traffic to the right place. We had one guest, Jill Hill, an ex-Harriet who had run with us in the past and was the Bunny's guest as well.

The drizzle started and thereby promised slippery ground and wet run to be on the cards. We found shelter in a makeshift 'pondok' and could see the paper snaking up the hillside just to the side of the construction site. With announcements out of the way the pack started off and had to use a construction ladder to get onto the hillside. The trail skirted left towards Leader Garden and ended at the stream from whence it circled back around and finally exited at the top end of Beverly Hills, the final exit being somewhat problematic with slippery ground and no handholds!

Meanwhile at the runsite the thirsty hashers waited patiently for the beer to arrive. Samy had sudden last minute business to attend to and so Sai Seng had to rush back home after setting the run to organise beers for the evening. Thank you Sai Seng for saving the day once again! The on/off rain was unpleasant and so we moved across the road to one of the empty houses for shelter whilst the beer shop was set up and opened.

Once again Speedhound came back just over the hour commenting on the very tricky last on down. The others followed suit in dribs and drabs over the next hour. Quite a number of absent members had returned from their long sojourns abroad and swelled the evening's crowd significantly as well as the beer drinkers whose loud gossip, mainly from the men, sounded like fish market haggling!!

Chicken rice was the menu of the day with Chinese favourite, stewed soya chicken feet! Yummy, Yummy!! Members ate, drank and gossiped until circle time.

Thank you to Mother Hen for the evening's hosting. In spite of the weather it was a good evening and it was great to see our returnees once again.

Circle

1. Welcome our guest and ex-Harriet member, Jill Hill.
2. Welcome also to our newest member Richard who became one of us on the night!!
3. Great to see you all again was the message given to Mini Sausage, Tulips, Viking, Tiny, Huge, Kiss Me and Kissing(h)er and their return from their long holidays
4. A charge from the floor saw Money on ice charged by Speedhound for being too Kiasu for wanting to start early.
5. Another charge from the floor by Jennifer @ Big Boobs, put Speedhound on ice. This was in reply to Speedhound saying that BB doesn't come to Harriets runs but goes to other runs. By charging Speedhound she proved she was at the Harriets run!!
6. Bunny of the Day, Mother Hen, was last to be called to receive thanks for a wet and slippery run, good food and a good evening.

Just to let everyone know Cheng's keys turned up the next day. They had inadvertently been taken by mistake. Many thanks to all who helped search for them the evening before.

Please check the hareline as there has been some necessary changes due to unavailability of some members.
