GM's Notes

Sai Seng and I started out to lay the trail only to be met with a barrier as they have repaired the break in the fence which is our usual entry point on this side of the playground. So there was nothing else for it but to go around it but this took us through piles of rubbish and long grass before we came back onto the path running behind the houses. It was almost unrecognisable as it was so overgrown which shows that the phenomenal growth rate of the jungle.

We climbed up the shaley bank, when onwards skirting up and down, up and down. There was no other hash paper except Harriets as we rounded past the old stagnant pond and the farms below. Many time loose rocks rained down the slopes as we climbed the steep hill exiting finally on the Hash Highway which was the easiest part of the trail.

After a little time on the Highway we re-entered the jungle and met old paper. Finding a way down however is more difficult these days since the construction site is expanding backwards and taking more of our old trails with it. Knowing we had a small area to work with we slowly made our way down and exited at the Pondok but not before I had fallen a few times and Sai Seng at least once!

In the evening the Members and guests gathered but there was no sign of the hare, Ronnie Tour, at start time. After the guest introductions and the usual about the run, the pack loped off in the direction of the fence. Others then started out for their walks around the neighbourhood whilst others yet stayed around and waited for the beer wagon. After about 30 mins or so Pimp came back complaining he had no legs and had had to turn back which was a good thing as it was a challenging run albeit short.

Money was back in just under the hour, muddy bum and all. He was followed by Speedhound, Imposter and shortly thereafter Iceman who started late as usual. The rest followed over the next hour even two virgin guests who said they really enjoyed it.

It was getting dark when I found out that Tiny had also gone on the run. Rupiah and GI came out saying they were with her at one point but then lost her somewhere but they weren't worried since they thought she was with Beauty Queen and Mother Hen. However she wasn't and they thought she was with the others. But Tiny being Tiny completed the run and came out after 8pm ALL on paper!!

In between time the Hare turned up with Nasi Lemak and curry puffs for dinner. Rose, who was feeling unwell, also sent some curry puffs in celebration of Richard's birthday on the 6th. We wish you a speedy recovery Rose.

Thank you Ronnie for a challenging run, tasty food and it was another enjoyable Harriets night.

Circle

1. This week we welcomed: Stephen (PIH2), Nellie, Benny (both Penang), Smiling Tiger, and two virgin hashers Oliver & Charlie (both UK). We hope you had a great evening.
2. The GM charged Monkey King with bringing two guests to the run and then not doing it himself. His excuse was he was too hungover to do anything but drink more beer!!
3. The GM then called Black German to the ice. The GM then surprised him by saying thank you for actually doing the Harriets runs when he doesn't seemingly do other Chapters runs! Mother Hen then added her thanks for his helping Tiny on the hill on today's run!
4. Handyman and Smiling Horse were next on the GM's list. She playfully thanked them also for coming even though they are now official members of the Dinner Club!

5. A charge from the floor saw Adelya on ice being charged by Monkey King. Her crime was giving wrong information to the Harriets regarding his email address. No wonder he never received anything!!
6. A second charge by Monkey King saw all those born in the 1990s on ice. Since most of us are older we had guests Charlie and Oliver and Adelya once again cooling their bums.
7. The last icing for the evening was for the Hare of the Day, Ronnie Tour. Thanks Ronnie for a good run and tasty food.

Next week there is a change of venue for the run. It is Bai Pass's run now at:

TAR COLLEGE CHINESE TEMPLE

Please check the hareline as there has been some necessary changes due to unavailability of some members.
