GM's Notes

There was an initial confusion regarding the actual runsite judging by the number of calls I was getting. The question being, Is it TAR College Chinese Temple or TAR College? We went to the Chinese Temple but there was initially no one there. Others went to TAR College. Finally after another round of calls TAR College was the venue for the evening and everyone got there! Thank goodness they are not so far apart!!

Initially only the hard core hashers were in attendance but we did have two guests, Kellin and Benny. After the Hare of the Day, Bai Pass, had announced a short to medium run and pointed down the side road, off the pack loped once more for their Thursday evening's exercise.

The start wasn't pleasant, however, as the rain had made the ground quite shuggy. It was also full of ants and rubbish. Yukkkkk! As we skirted up and down the slippery slope we finally made our way to the rubber trees and the terraced ledges. From there it was up until we reached the Hash Highway.

On reaching the highway, Mother Hen and Beauty Queen were just ahead of Silentman and me. They were a little unsure of the paper but after quite a walk we finally spotted the On Down and slipped slowly back to the runsite, it being dark when we arrived. Kellin and GL had overshot the turn but GL was experienced enough to take the next turn and they too came out in the dark just before us.

After a quick cleanup, we got stuck into the food of Chicken Curry with rice and poppadums and a great Kiam Chai Boey graciously made by Beauty Queen. By now the regular Dinner Club members had arrived and there was plenty of noise and chatter going on. Then circle time!!

Circle

1. Guests on ice!! Nice to see Kellin and Benny once more at our run. We do hope that they will join us as members one day too!
2. G-man celebrated his birthday during the week and it was possible he was still celebrating it, the disruption he was causing during the circle. Nevertheless happy birthday David.
3. Polish Piper also had a birthday this week and he was the next to be acknowledged. Happy birthday Helmut we hope you had a good day too.
4. A charge from the floor saw G-Man put the Committee on ice. His charge was that when the GM was on holiday the rest of the Committee didn't give beer and messed up the runs. It was a spurious charge as we all know as they did a great job and one just made up for the enjoyment of having the Committee on ice!!
5. The GM then called out Take Care to sit on ice. The reason never got to be heard however since suddenly people were pouring water and even juice over him and there was complete disruption. Water is one thing but JUICE... that isn't right and certainly not over someone's head. We say we don't have cold water at the Harriets and after this episode that rule will be more rigidly enforced.
6. Another charge from the floor by Uncle Bee had Mini Sausage and Rupiah on ice. The charge was that their chairs are now so luxurious and comfortable with great amounts of padding and even a head rest that it's no wonder they don't like to stand at circle time.
7. Hare on ice. Thank you Dr. Suaran @ Bai Pass for a good run, good food and another great Harriets evening!

Next week is Kiss Me's run at Mount Pleasure. I hope to see you all there.
