GM's Notes

Anyone who has been on one of Mini Sausage's runs in the past know that he sets short but challenging ones for the Harriets. The run last Thursday was not any different but was further compounded by the incessant rain of the previous night and early morning. The brave but slow ones such as Dieu Lah Sing, Tulips and Rupiah went in early after being pre-warned that it was a tough run. Huge and Tiny also went in but returned 20-30 mins later after being confronted by a wide drain. Mother Hen and Beauty Queen also did the same thing!

Goodyear was back in an hour complaining how slippery it was in places and in others no hand or foothold to give help. Speedhound, Imposter, Marks & Spencer and Take Care all returned covered in mud as proof of the difficult run and also complaining about having to climb on the rocks slipping and sliding. It seems part of the run was virgin but the On Down joined last week's run and exited at the Indian Shrine from there it was a walk back behind the apartments and out by the Old Hydro Hotel.

Most of the runners were back by 7.30pm and it was dark by then. Rupiah and Tulips came back nearer to 8.00pm followed by Dieu Lah Sing and Silentman. A relieved Mini Sausage then started to serve the food and hashers drank the subsidised beer. Then it was circle time!

Many thanks to Mini Sausage for another tough challenging run, the good food and for the subsidised beer!

Circle

1. Happy Birthday to all our September babies.
2. Mini Sausage was charged with using PH3 paper and not Harriet paper for the run.
3. Sai Seng must have been hungry as he started serving the food before Mini Sausage had given the go ahead. Hence a cold bum for him!!
4. G-Man on ice!! Definitely having a men-o-pause. Poor boy!!
5. Hare on ice!! Many thanks to Mini Sausage for the evening, run, food and beer.

Next week we are at the Quarry, Botanical Gardens for the GM's run. I hope to see you all there!
