GM's Notes

October is the month where the monsoon disrupts weather patterns all over Asia and it had been raining relentlessly in Penang especially the night before and overnight too. Being prepared for slippery and soft ground we went into the Gardens and headed towards the Lily Pond turning. However we took the 2nd path after the Orchid House not the first and immediately went into the bush and started climbing. There was paper from another Chapter there and not wanting to reinvent the wheel, we decided to use the same route, at least at first.

Up and up we went sliding on the slippery slope as we skirted the hill up and down. About midway we were caught up by the 1<sup>o</sup>Clock Club, a group who hike practically every day and are very fit!! We were close to the Lily Pond trail at that time and after chatting with Sai Seng they decided to head down that way whilst Sai Seng and I went up further to get to the Hash

Highway. We headed down the trail and finally exited using the Holland Chun trail back into the Gardens just by the PBA. From there it was an easy walk back to the runsite.

In the evening there was a lot of activity on reaching the Quarry. Tents, shelter, spotlights were being erected all around. We were informed that the RM Police were having a nationwide family gala on the weekend. We were told we could use the shelter, tables and chairs which was very good of them for it meant we would not have to retreat to Bee Gallery if the heavy rain came but as it turned out the evening was lovely, cool and dry.

The initial lot of hashers who turned up early were also surprised with much joking about the Bunny having hired them for the day!! We had a number of guests with Viking inviting 3 colleagues, Jesper, Lars (neither having hashed before) and Michael who had. The Bunny's guests were Benny, Kellin, Nellie, Stephen, Nisha and who should turn up as well, none other than Mick Chee!

At 6pm sharp the pack loped off for the short but definitely slippery run. Goodyear was out in around 50 mins and the rest followed with the last ones out around 7.20pm. The food was then served with the Bunny's now famous, sardine curry, dhal, vegetable and of course Chapatti the menu of the day. It didn't take long for the hungry bunch to ask for more and soon it was all gone as always!!

With good food eaten, subsidised beer being drunk we had a short circle.

Many thanks to Just Beer for a very good run, fabulous food and for the subsidised beer!

Circle

1. Welcome the guests, paying ones that is: Jesper, Lars and Michael all from Denmark.
2. Welcome the Bunny's guests: Benny, Kellin, Nellie, Stephen. Unfortunately Mick Chee seemed to have conveniently disappeared.
3. Nisha was then called to the ice by the GM. She had pretended to be deaf when the GM asked for the previous guests to come out, so she was made to sit on the ice all alone as befits an ex Harriet GM trying to pull a fast one!!
4. Silence descended on the circle all except in one section where Ronnie Tour, AML and Money were standing chatting away instead of listening to the GM. There was no choice but to punish them with cold bums but somehow Money seemed to escape that bit!!
5. The final icing was for the Bunny of the Day, Just Beer. Many thanks for a good short but slippery run which made the run somewhat longer in time, fabulous food as usual and for subsidising the beer.

Next week's run is Dieu Lah Sing's run at Shamrock Watertank. Please come along to support.
