Hash House Harriets Penang

Run: 2358

Date: 20 April 2017

Venue: Bukit Gambir

Hare: Toddy

The Burst

Today's run by Toddy Tan was at Bukit Gambir. It's not often the harriets run from this site, perhaps because the start is already half way up the hill, and girls prefer a bit of a warm up before getting it on. Or so I'm told, but how would I know.

In the absence of the GM (may she recover soon) and VGM, the Hon Sex took command and as a good commander, immediately delegated the circle to Speed Hound. After the usual bullshit, Toddy pointed us in a vague way towards a hill.

Lead by Imposter who is wont to begin enthusiastically, the small contingent of runners (as opposed to the large contingent of dinner club members) followed up the hill behind the temple. Rumour was that this was a very very short run, but we remember never to trust the hare.

The climb was steep, and was warming us up nicely.

There were papers from every hash on the island, and some more from alien hashers, or so it seemed. An abundance of trail markers lead up along. After a short while the on up became an on down, but even for a short run, this was too soon. Right.

On up again. then on down again, then on up again.

Burst continued...

Familiar from a few weeks ago when one Good Year set a run from the same site, could it be the same run? Ah we spy paper "Good Year's April Fools run".

Cripes, are the Harriets going to do a 6km plus run!

Going up a longish hill on paper, near to the top I notice, there is every kind of paper, except one kind! Harriets Kind!

Looking back I see Good Year and his guest looking up at me, but was than a knowing grin on Good Year's face.

Soon he shouted on paper off to his left, and down I had to come, and proceed on Harriet's paper, meeting Speed Hound and the General.

Another on up, and then the on down paper, easy enough and back to the run site. Only 2.09km according to the GPS carried by Imposter, but a good sweat and a pleasant run. What more can one ask!

Great food (just ignore the chickens feet, pork belly and enjoy the taste), subsidised beer and camaraderie. Entertainment at the circle and clowning around by Gman added to the fun.

The Circle

Speed Hound called Mem Sahib and Pukka Sahib to the ice to welcome them back from their recent Aussie adventure. They told us about their trip across The Nullabor and all the finger lickin' good Road Kill they encountered!!

Next on ice was Iceman who was congratulated on his 300th run. He was pre warned to expect the same next week when he receives the pewter award for his outstanding efforts.

The Circle

A charge from GeeMan saw Molly on ice and the reason? GeeMan felt the need to publicly declare his undying love and respect for her. So noted.

The Circle

A charge from Goodyear put Black German and Money on ice for not doing the run. Money's declaration of medical reasons fell on deaf ears as did BG's excuse that he was waiting for a family member to arrive. Their BS was drowned out by a song and washed down with beer.

Finally the Hare was called to the ice. Toddy was thanked for a good run, great food and subsidised beer.
