Date: 27 April 2017

Venue: Leader Garden

Hare: Inspector Gadget

GM's Run Notes

Alex alias Inspector Gadget joined the Harriets in January 2008 and his birthday is the 18th of the same month. This is information for the unsuspecting or knowing females who fall for his charms!! He left after a while but rejoined us again this year. It is his FIRST virgin hosting with us too!!

Knowing his fondness for long punishing runs I decided to rope in Akz Hole and do the run early as coming out in the dark is not something I look forward to. So we went in early and came back out 2.5hrs later at 5.00pm just as the evening's hashers started to gather.

The whole trail was marked with new Harriets' paper at the start of the run and the older paper on the way back. In between was paper on which he had written recipes for his food preparation. It had rained during the run setting and so some of the paper was hard to see even in the light. Nevertheless it was a long run, tough in places and even dangerous (I thought) when climbing down the wet slippery rocks getting back to the stream to get back home. I found it difficult during the day to do this, so imagine what it must have been like in the fast fading light of the evening. I am proud to say though that the members never complained but did the run and finished it too!!

Two members did the run in reverse and a special mention must go to Toddy Tan who cluelessly did the run minus his glasses and was on the phone at the start which was the reason he missed the first turn at the beginning!! Thankfully a patient Pukka Sahib caught him up and guided him out but why was PS going in reverse also??? They finally came back at 9.15pm and all had tales to tell about the run, helped on by the food served and the drinks being consumed. Several Hashers had contributed to the food by bringing along their own specialities finishing with an Apple pie/strudel from Renata and Helmut.

There was also a Tamil class for anyone who wanted to master the language, aided with beer of course. The more they drank, the more expert in the language they became!! I left at 11.30pm and they were still drinking and talking but I'm not sure that the new 'Masters of Language' were making much sense by that time!!

In all we had 35 members and 1 guest for the evening. Thank you to all who contributed to the evening and to Gadget for hosting. I hope you all enjoyed it too!

Finally back

Hash House Harriets Penang

Welcome to our guest Salam who arrived late due to going to the wrong runsite. She is pretty fast and soon caught up with the back runners but then decided to stick with them just in case. You are welcome any time.

The Circle

There were about 6 members who came back at 8.50pm lead by Itchi Bai and Silentman. They were tired but Kudos to them for completing the whole run.

Toddy Tan on ice!!! A new award was bestowed on Toddy as “Dickhead of the Week’. He went in early and asked for directions. He was told go in through the gate and then turn left where the paper was. He was too busy on his phone to obviously hear what was said and coupled with the fact he went in without his glasses meant he not only didn’t hear the instruction he couldn’t see the paper either and hence did the run in reverse making it even tougher than it was!! No wonder it took him 4 hours.

A second charge from the floor saw POSH also on ice for the same offence. She claimed to have on Hash underwear but wouldn't provide the proof of that! The GM wanted her to sing her beer song but in the confusion Ronnie sung one instead.

A charge from the floor saw Ronnie Tour on ice for the crime of improper attire!! This is having no hash T-Shirt. The GM also made him sing his own down down song too!

Once a dedicated runner, Smiling Horse, albeit still a stalwart of the Club, doesn't do much running these days but does seem to pick the long runs when he does do one. As with this week it was a TOUGH, LONG run and he was knackered when he got back at 8.50pm but nevertheless Kudos to him!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO YOU, April babies. Unfortunately only Handyman and Money were still in attendance.

The Circle

Thanks to the hare of the day Inspector Gadget for a tough run and hosting the evening.
