Hash House Harriets Penang

Run Number: 2362

Date: 18 May 2017

Venue: Bayee Pass

Hare: Pukka Sahib

GM's Run Notes

Going in early to set the run was one way of making sure we would not be spending the night in the jungle again as I did once before when setting with Pukka Sahib. Bayee Pass (a hash name and only recognised by such people) was the venue but at the lay-by just before the hawker venue sited on the right. It took 4 hours though to set the run, as we tried different routes before settling for the On Home through the farmer's house and chasing away his irate dogs who were barking away.

In the evening Speedhound picked up Molly, Nikki and I and we arrived early despite the traffic. Pimp, Money and Botak Chin were already there and were just setting off to start the run despite it being quite early and even the hare was not around at that point.

When he did arrive with Mem Sahib in tow, the group of assembled hashers gathered to hear about the run, be introduced to the guests and then were off.

There were some late comers with Iceman being the last as usual, around 6.40pm, due to snail paced traffic getting to the runsite.

The three early starters came back about 7pm (hence more than an hour). Shortly afterwards other FRB's (Rudru, Bommy) also returned. The slower ones were all back by 7.30pm including Iceman who did the whole thing in just over 50mins.

The lights came on and thankfully the threatening rain stayed away. People had a good time trading gossip, drinking beer and eating. Mem Sahib had made some delicious muffins and cake which went down well as a pre-dinner snack before the main course of green curry, Omelette with chives, and homemade beetroot. There was a wonderful homemade fruit juice, and even more veggies all of which disappeared rather quickly.

Because of the 'distance' some wanted to leave early and so we had a short, sharp circle. After that the group dispersed somewhat but the hard core were still sitting there talking and drinking until late and the drizzle started.

Thank you to Pukka Sahib for the run and not getting me lost this time around. Thank you to Mem Sahib for the delicious food we all enjoyed and thank you to all who made the effort to come to the runsite. It was a very good evening!

The Circle

We had 4 guests this week: Christina, Rudru, Khoo and Itchi Bai. However only Christina and Khoo made it to the ice.

- The GM then charged Botak Chin and asked him to explain how he was the only one to finish last week's run without seeing others who also claim to have done the whole thing and were behind him but came out ahead of him. Did he do the Ghost Run??

The GM then called out Pimp, Money and Botak Chin and anointed them the 'Three idjuts' as they went in early for a 'shortish' run and still took an hour to come back. When asked why they went early their reply was that they didn't trust the hare to lay enough paper and not to get lost, so they thought a head start was important.

Welcome to our latest new member – Bommy, who joined us this week. I think all know Bommy who has run with us many times in the past and up to about 4/5 years ago used to live in Penang. Now he is permanently back to live and we have the pleasure of seeing much more of him at the runs. Welcome.

Hare on ice. The GM recounted the story of her past experience of setting with Pukka Sahib when they got lost and had to spend the night in the jungle. Something NEVER to be repeated said the GM. Even for this run things did not go smoothly and it took over 4 hours to set and it was a 'shortish' run. Nevertheless, a big thanks to Pukka Sahib for the run and to Mem Sahib for the delicious food.
