Hash House Harriets Penang

Run: 2379

Date: 14 September 2017

Venue: Batu Gantung

Hare: Akz Hole

GM's Run Notes

Setting a trail at Batu Gantung meant a challenge when confronted with boulders in all shapes and sizes. Even the initial climb up the steps towards the 'On In' was a fight against Mother Nature with the grass and prickles being as tall as the run-setters height and it was a relief to finally get through and get on to the path.

Following the path we climbed higher and higher as the rain kept us company on and off. Recognising the landscape it was a matter of time before we hit the upper trail. Then it was decision time. Shall we take the tar road down or go back into the bush. We chose the latter and headed down one of the variety of possible "On Downs."

IT WAS TOUGH!!

The "On Down" made the "On Up" like a walk in the park. Slowly and slippery we made our way down and came across a woman living alone with numerous yappy dogs. We asked her the best way down and vaguely pointing towards some rocks she said "down there" but we couldn't find any way through.

Finally Smiling Horse found an alternative route and we followed him only to be confronted by thick undergrowth which thankfully was only several feet wide and we managed to bash through.

Exiting the other side I recognised the farm from yesteryears when this route was a popular 'on up'. The overgrown path and lush grass was the result of the wet season and we tiredly and itchily made our way back to the run site, changed and went for a bite to eat. Many thanks to Botak Chin, Beauty Queen and Smiling Horse for helping me set the run.

Woodpecker was then called to the ice to explain how he hurt his hand at the last possible moment when completing the run. The more ribald comments from the assembly were “He was doing it too fast”, “Are you ambidextrous?” “Is it that heavy?” All relating to his male appendage of course!! (I understand the hand is not broken but quite swollen...Ed)

The GM then put Akz Hole on ice for disrespecting the circle by talking and barracking the GM as she tried to conduct it.

A charge by Akz Hole put Botak Chin on ice. Botak Chin helped to set the run and just after the hashers had started the run had a bet with Akz Hole it would take close to 1.5 hrs for the FRBs to come back. AH said under the hour and so it proved to be. So Botak Chin lost his bet as the FRBs were out in 54 mins!!

Hare on Ice. Many thanks to Akz Hole for the run, food and subsidised beer for the evening. It was a shame the evening ended when the heavy downpour came around 9.30pm although some toughed it out and remained drinking after it had passed.
