GM's Run Notes

The wet season is here with the Hungry Ghost festival and the 9 Emperor God vegetarian fare. Botak Chin, who accompanied me to help set the run, was waiting as I drove in and we went off when ready, to set a short to medium run.

In the evening the lack of parking spaces showed that we were sharing the venue with the FTAC but somehow or other we managed to find spaces here and there. Our small crowd grew after the hashers went off into the bush as seems usual these days. Iceman came back in 45 mins! I wonder what sort of super food he eats as I could never do a run in such a short time. As hashers returned from the run over the next hour we found that 3 were still out, Saylor, and his wife Broccoli and Snap Cop who had all decided to do the run but they were slow. They finally returned back around 8.00pm much to everyone's relief especially that of the Bunny. The food was served, a great Thai chicken curry with roasted pumpkin, mashed potato and veggies, the beers were drunk and the conversation flowed. With all the noise coming from the FTAC crowd we had shout during the circle.

Many thanks go to Biking Sheila on her virgin hosting. It was a good night with great food and a slippery run. Thanks also go to Black German who subsidised 2 crates of beer in memory of the late Bina Bottomless.

The Circle

Welcome the guests. This week we had Darren from Australia and to keep him from being lonely we had Pimp sit with him as he has been MIA for some time.

Welcome also to the Bunny's invited guests Gillian and Khoo.

The next icing was a shared moment between Kim Jong-Un and Donald Trump being represented by Polish Piper and Goodyear. It was a peace making ceremony and we are very happy all is now well between them. Wish it were that on the World stage however!

Hash House Harriets Penang

A charge by Botak Chin saw the GM cooling her bum on the ice. During the run setting it appears the GM got agitated when BC put some of the papers upside down and reprimanded him. But BC thinks it is better for the woman to be upside down!! Nudge nudge. Wink wink!!

Hash House Harriets Penang

The Circle

A charge by Bommy saw Broccoli on ice. Her crime was to wear new shoes to a hash. Didn't your other half never tell you about wearing new shoes??
Shame on him!!

Hash House Harriets Penang

The Circle

Itchy Bai then charged No
Choice with the heinous crime of leaving a plastic bottle in the jungle.

Something we do not do!!

The bottle looked to contain milk or some such liquid. Breast milk was suggested!!

Hash House Harriets Penang

BC Lim then charged the GM regarding the circle last week when he was put on ice by her. There were some recriminations being banded about but the circle drowned out the charge and I heard nothing more. (Bullshit was something I did hear however Ed.) But all ended amicably as it should do at Hash!!

The last icing for the evening was of course our thanks to the Bunny of the Day, Biking Sheila. It was her first hosting and the food was really good. I think we could all say it was a great success despite the noisy neighbours!!
