Wishing all our Hindu friends a very Happy Diwali

Hash House Harriets Penang

Run: 2384

Date: 19 October 2017

Venue: Old Pekaka Runsite

Hare: Good Year

Burst by Iceman

The old Taman Pekaka run site is just perfect for a Thursday run. Sufficient parking for the Harriets, Not much through traffic, tolerant neighbours, and a circle area off the road. For a wonder, an October run at this run site happened without so much as a drop of rain. the reputation "it always rains in Taman Pekaka" was confounded for once.

We just need to request the locals to improve the lighting in the circle area.

The run was already underway when I arrived and deposited the car key in the new "key" box. The hare, Goodyear pointed me in the direction (covered in clipped paper) and said "turn left" as i headed up the hill. The trail duly turned left, and proceeded on a level for some distance, easy warm up. A few trees were lying across the path, and this reminded me of our last run on this trail, when the VGM was mauled by a swarm of angry bees at a fallen tree. The bees are gone, glad to report, and there were no reports of bee stings. Soon the sweeper group, An Ni (Beauty Queen), Rupiah and Silent James came into view, but were stationary! The reason for the 'stop' was allowing a couple of guests, who were gingerly navigating a small drop just ahead of the sweepers. Their difficulties were enlarged by their romantically holding each others hand during this manoeuvre.

Passing these lovers, Indian Trump and Indian Melania came into view. Trump was at the ledge above a difficult slope, and Melania was heroically clambering up the slope, using whatever minuscule hand and foot holds available. As Melania dangled precariously, one leg swinging loosely in an attempt to reach the next foot hold, this Indian Trump called out to his darling, to "stand aside and let the faster runner through"!

Burst by Iceman

Melania didn't exactly tell him to Fkuc Off, but in a ladylike manner conveyed a similar sentiment. Having secured the ledge, the lady allowed me to pass.

Toddy Tan was alone, and I wondered where are his usual companions, GL and Laughing Horse, not to be seen today apparently.

After a few of these 'up-a-bit-horizontal-a-bit' sections of a nice trail, the real on up started. Gadget was being kind to strangers, in this case a boy, in the wrong shoes who was manfully charging up the slope, and then sliding down again as the lack of grip on his soles and the dry loose gravel combined to impede his progress. Gadget made sure this determined future hasher made it back to the run site. Dripy Dick was just ahead of these two, contemplating how his Harley might improve his progress up this hill.

As we approached the 'top', the General informed us that this was a false top, and there was another 100m of 'up' to go before we started down.

The on down trail started very steeply, but then became a gently sloping open path, where Mellons was catching Botak Chin, and then Rudhru (R2D2). Darkness came to the forest around this time, to add to the challenge and the trail zig zagged left and right, and up and down until the run site was reached. The gentle men and women of the sweeper group lead the guests home, with torch lights and patience. Meanwhile two hashers, had gone back in on reverse to provide water and 100 plus to revive the spirits of those guests.

Iceman put YB aka Trump on ice for being so inconsiderate to his wife. During the run YB instructed his wife to move aside to allow Iceman to pass them, despite that she was dangling from a ledge and trying to maintain her balance. It seems he was truly living up to the Trump reputation.

Goodyear charged Polish Piper for claiming he didn't know how to get to the runsite. PP called him three times from the bridge saying he was stuck on there in traffic. Goodyear sent out a rescue party who found Polish Piper in Tesco shopping!

The Guests Kokrokoo of the North and Fallen Woman finally got back at 9:15pm. Their son was relieved to see them and they were put straight on ice. Kudos for finishing the run and hope you join us again when you're next in Penang.
