Hash House Harriets Penang

Comments from the On-Sec

This week we had a total of 51 people consisting of 43 members and 8 guests (not including one or two characters trying to be inconspicuous).

The run was tough with a few people getting lost but all had returned safely by 9pm and everyone enjoyed the night. Kudos to Pimp and No Choice for setting the run alone, after Just Beer was called away at the last minute on personal matters. They did a good job and following setting the run, No Choice rushed home to finish cooking the delicious food she provided later that evening, well done. Kudos also to Darren for his contribution via writing the burst this week. Despite him being a very new member, Darren proudly accepted the task and he did a great job considering he has only been a member for the past 4 weeks! Finally, and for the 3rd consecutive week, Silentman and Smiling Horse patiently lead the lost and tired runners back to base, including 2 guests. Kudos to everyone for finishing and special thanks to Silentman, Smiling Horse (and Beauty Queen the two prior weeks) for making sure everyone returned safely.

As most of you know, our esteem GM and her hubby Akzhole have been on a well deserved holiday. With the VGM and Treasurer also not around, this meant I needed to hold the fort for a few weeks, a task which I found a bit daunting to say the least. It is for this reason I want to take the opportunity to acknowledge and thank all those members who chipped in and helped me each week with various tasks. Many thanks goes to:

Speed Hound and Iceman for assistance with the circles.

Molly for assistance with the members cards.

Iceman, Money Manfred and Darren for writing the bursts.

Beauty Queen, Missy, No Choice and Miss Bollywood for assisting with the circle drinks.

And last but not least, thanks to our 'professional' members choir for their consistently entertaining repertoire!!

I apologise if I have left anyone out and extend sincere thanks to all the members for their contribution each week via their attendance, failing which we would not have an event or a club.

Finally my utmost appreciation goes to Just Beer for the incredible job she does, week in and week out, from setting the runs to writing all the bursts. I am also fortunate enough to know how much work the GM's partner in crime actually does for the club, many thanks Akzhole.

I selfishly hope the GM NEVER goes away again!! at least not while I'm a committee member.

Run: 2386

Date: 2 November 2017

Burst by Darren

Venue: Shamrock Beach Watertank (Kali's Cnr)

Bunny: No Choice

Got to the site early to meet up with Pimp to take off early as I didn't want another dark finish. On arrival Dieu Lah Sing and Viking were preparing to take off as well. They warned me about waiting for Pimp as Pimp time is unpredictable. Anyway I should have listened, no sign of Pimp by agreed time, later I found out he set the run so I took off by myself around 5.30 pm, thinking I would be back for the beer wagon by 7pm.

The up was pretty straight forward, no real obstacle for a novice slow Hasher like myself, thinking this is great, easy run. First person to pass me at about 6.25pm was the guest Oliver going like the clappers, I was impressed, it took him only 25 minutes to reach me and me with 30 minute head start. I did not see Oliver again till 9pm!

Next to pass me was Iceman, although I did see him again when he lapped me, Iceman must have done the run twice, he is very fit.

Next to pass was a group including Virgin Handbag, the only one I can remember as she was the prettiest!

I finished the on up around 6.40pm and started on down, a few tricky bits but seemed straight forward enough, with the finish in sight I was happy. Pukka Sahib and Frozen Pussy caught up just on dark and about 5 minutes later we lost the paper. Tried to find paper but no luck, so with Pukka Sahib's guidance we followed old PiH2 paper and headed down.

Lucky PS was there otherwise I think I now would be in a monkey family in the jungle somewhere. We finally came out of the Jungle around 7.30pm at the "Reef", a few kilometres off course. I put in a call to Virgin Hand Bag, a rescue was organised and the 3 of us were picked up by Iceman. Returning to the group we found out we were not the only ones who had problems with paper, evidently Pimp had set a shit run!!! What do I know, I am only a beginner but agreed anyway.

Good food provided by No Choice and Sammy's Cold Beer was being enjoyed by the group as we waited for the 6 lost souls (including Oliver) to return. Evidently Money Manfred was guiding them home by remote control as he was having a day off. Circle started a little before 9pm without the 6 lost souls, although we were told they were not far away. Not sure how Pimp avoided ice as he set a confusing run, he must have some influence or paid a bride. The lost souls turned up at 9pm, no harm done, Oliver looked very fresh, obviously he doesn't feel pain! Hung around a bit and got a lift home with Biking Sheila who displayed impressive aggression behind the wheel and got me home in record time. She should get rid of the bike and turn to Formula 1!

- Darren.

The Circle

Welcome to the guests Oliver, Roberto, Drippy Dick, Jenny, Beryl, Audrey (not pictured) and the Bunny's guests Robert and Wan.

Next on ice was Frozen Pussy for being MIA since she got her car 4 months ago. Her only retrieve was she paid her 2018 subs as a commitment to bring her icy bits along more often and grace as with her presence.

Goodyear & Kopitiam were put on ice for their impressive effort in completing the Ball Breaker 26.54 km run at the Pan Asia Hash in Korea last week. Well done guys!

The Circle

A charge from Iceman had Beauty Queen on ice for not doing the run with Silentman. The suspicion was that BQ had been tipped off and she didn't want to come back last. BQ denied any leaks stating her reason was that she was no longer in love with Silentman.

The next charge saw Mini Sausage on ice. The charge from Dieu Lah Sing was Mini Sausages remarkably speedy return from Holland since his mother's funeral last week, proving his dedication to Hash.

The Circle

Silentman, Smiling Horse, Oliver, Woodpecker, Rupiah and Audrey returned at 9pm. They were tired, sweaty and grateful to be back and sharing some cold drinks and a feed.

Monkey King charged Roberto, his guest from Spain for behaving like a lumberjack during the run. Roberto was reportedly jumping fallen trees, ducking overhead branches and ended up waving around a 5 metre branch asking Monkey King what he should do with it..... MK told Roberto what to do with it!

Thanks to the bunny of the day No Choice for a medium/tough run, delicious home cooked food, desserts and plenty of subsidised beer.
