Hash House Harriets Penang

Run: 2387 Diwali Run
Date: 9 November 2017
Venue: Quarry, Botanical Gdns
Hare: Indian Members

GM's Run Notes

There was a big crane and a lorry loaded with pipes at the entrance to the Quarry when I arrived. A query to the driver revealed they might finish work by 7.00pm so we all had to find parking in the main car park area. Sai Seng had set the run over familiar terrain to make it easier for everyone bearing in mind the weather we have been having of late.

There were 3 guests to start with and then another guest joined in later. Looking around at the assembled gathering I was beginning to wonder if the food ordered was going to be wasted as the Diwali organisers had ordered for 50 and the numbers were nowhere near that but then the dinner club had not yet arrived.

Oliver, our young and very fit guest, was back in 35 mins, which in part made up for his run last week when he missed the paper and got himself lost. The others, including habitual late comer Iceman, followed over the next half hour or so.

The crane at the entrance was still there and in fact had been joined by yet another lorry which had cement to be unloaded, which meant that the food and beer trucks could not get through. We were told the unloading would take at least another hour and so, with the drizzle starting, a decision was made to retreat to Bee Gallery for the rest of the evening.

At Bee Gallery the numbers had increased including 2 other guests and in all we had 49 members and 5 guests for the evening. The plentiful and delicious food, subsidised beer and fruits (donated by Mem Sahib and Pukka Sahib, many thanks) gave the crowd a party like atmosphere. As usual Inspector Gadget, after having his fill (at least twice) wanted to get the circle underway as he had a long way to go home to SP. So we obliged and had a short circle under cover from the continuing drizzle.

Many thanks to all our Indian members and to all others, who contributed in whatever way, in making it a very pleasant and enjoyable evening!

The Circle

Itchi and Oliver (missing).

Although it was not a true icing the GM started the circle in thanking the Committee members who ran the Club during her absence. Since this was only the On Sec, Biking Sheila was thanked and those ordinary members who helped her were also acknowledged and thanked too.

Hash House Harriets Penang

The Circle

Next to be iced was Lorenza. She has not been a member for long but we all know she is small of stature, FAST and Italian. She didn't have a hash name so after some obtuse submissions such as Leather Sofa, she was given the name Ferrari for obvious reasons although I think she would have preferred something a little more racy....

The Circle

Q: How many Indians does it take to set a Diwali Run?

A: None.

The run was set by our man of many nationalities it seems...Sai Seng. Many thanks for stepping in to set a good, short but enjoyable run.

Hash House Harriets Penang

The Circle

The last icing of the evening was a group icing to thank our Indian members for their contributions and organising prowess in setting up the enjoyable evening. Many thanks go also to others who also contributed in whatever way. Thank you all it was a very successful evening.
