GM's Run Notes

What brilliant sunshine as Rob, Nellie, Kellin, Lyna and I set out to lay the trail on Thursday morning. We knew what to expect with the recent devastation of the soil but it still surprised us when we saw ledges and parts of the hill had given way.

Going past the open gate behind the houses we headed for the banana plantation. There we were met by friendly but yappy dogs and after passing them we came to the farmer's house. Rounding the house we went to the stream, crossed over and from there climbed into the bush.

We did the usual skirting, skirting and then up again to reach the hash highway. Back along the highway and then down into the bush once more along the downward track to exit once more at the plantation and out along the 'panhandle' back to the runsite. It was a short to medium run by our estimation.

The heavens opened up in the afternoon and I think that was enough to deter anyone who wanted to challenge nature. However we still had a hard core group of hashers turn up and do the run. All were back by 7.30pm except one..... TODDY TAN! He once again went on the run without his glasses and is as blind as a bat without them.

Rumour had it that he had turned back at some point but after half an hour we got a call to say he was on the hash highway heading for Charlie Market. He returned by 8.20pm just in time to sit on the ice. He was still blind as a bat but in good humour.

The crowd swelled a little as the dinner club members arrived and under the shelter of the shop lots we camped out chatting, joking and drinking as usual. The rain never abated but it takes more than that to dampen the spirits of hashers!!

Many thanks to Rob for a good but slip slidy run and very tasty Nasi Lemak.

The Circle

There were two guests on the night, our regular Drippy Dick and Jillian. Afterwards Drippy wisely decided to become a member and so we welcome him to the Club as our newest member.

Hash House Harriets Penang

The Circle

Just at the moment Drippy Dick was leaving the ice Toddy Tan appeared and the GM put him straight on the ice. She questioned why he never wears his glasses when he goes into the jungle and hence gets himself lost as he did tonight. I don't know what his reply was but his smile was definitely ear to ear!!

Hash House Harriets Penang

The Circle

Jillian was missing when we started the icings so the GM thought it only fair that she be acknowledged for attending the evening in such poor conditions. Hence she was on the ice!!

Hash House Harriets Penang

The Circle

Money then made a charge from the floor which saw the On Sex on ice! He wanted to thank her for the great job she did whilst the GM was away and keeping everything ticking over. We all thank her for that!!

Hash House Harriets Penang

The Circle

Because of circumstances the October birthdays were not celebrated so to make up for it we celebrated on this night. Unfortunately only the GM and Akz Hole were present but then we learned that Jillian also had an October birthday, so the GM and AH kindly let her sit on the ice once again!!

Hash House Harriets Penang

The Circle

The final icing for the evening saw Shit in the Pit on ice to receive thanks for a good but slippery, wet run and tasty Nasi Lemak. He called his co hares to the ice also but the GM didn't respond but No Choice did, to be also thanked for helping set.
