Hare: Christmas Run

GM's Run Notes

Viking and I had set the run on Wednesday because Viking had another function to attend on the Thursday. Since it was the Christmas Run we decided to make it short so that everyone could enjoy the evening. So there were no walls to scale and if anyone wanted to do so they could go round twice. By 6.00pm on the Thursday evening there were a small group of hashers assembled ready for the run with 2 early starters already gone in. I thought and hoped that the numbers would swell as the evening progressed. Off they went to enter just behind the Chinese Shrine.

Iceman then arrived with his usual lateness followed soon after by a Belgian family, Mum, Dad and daughter who had been told about the Harriets by Richard Hamley from PH3 and the 2 ladies were keen to experience it, Dad having already run with PH3 the previous Monday. Akz Hole showed them the On In but didn't realise that we had used the old FOOT logo paper and not the new logo to mark the trail. When he told me what he had said to them about following the paper I feared they might get lost since they would not be able to find any of the new logo.

Just as they went in the two early starters, Toddy Tan and Dieu Lah Sing, exited saying it took them about 1 hour 10 mins to complete and they were so happy that it was a short run.

The first of the FRBs started to return after 30 mins but some of them decided to do a second round as it was too short for them. This was great news as they were certain to see our guests somewhere on the trail. Sure enough they did and accompanied them up the trail and back home. Everyone was back by 7.15pm and the slow runners had big grins on their faces as the promised short run really was a short run!! However even though it was a short, well marked, run some people still got themselves lost by trying to out-think the hares. They ended up in Leader Garden and had to jog back to the runsite...didn't you Money and Bommy!!!

The Christmas atmosphere started to build as the food arrived...and so much of it too... Christmas music, courtesy of Geeman, was playing in the background as the hashers drank their subsidised beer and red wine made the rounds. After the many repeated helpings of the delicious food we had a short circle and then got back to more drinking and chatting. The spirit of merry making was certainly abundant and it was great to see the numbers grow as the evening wore on as the late comers arrived to join in the fun. The evening's weather was superb and it was past midnight when the final group left.

Many thanks to all who contributed in making the evening a wonderful event! Thanks to Kiss Me and Kissing(h)er for the two delicious cakes, Geeman for providing the music, to Biking Shelia for co-ordinating and to Spermwhale and No Choice for cooking some of the extra dishes. It was a fantastic spread and a wonderful night. Thank you to ALL.

The Circle

Our late arriving Belgian family (sorry but I just didn't get their names) were the first on ice to welcome them to the Harriets Hash. The daughter (Clemintine??) really loved it even though they were not properly attired and would love to do more hashing. Unfortunately they will not be with us long as they will be moving to Africa early in the New Year. But please come back before you leave!!

The GM then called out the poor lost souls to the ice. Money and Bommy arrived back at the runsite later than many due to their ending up at Leader Garden. The reason was short cutting on a short run but not knowing where they were going. "I followed Money" said Bommy when asked 'who was the leader of the "Long Hike Home?"'

The GM then spotted Eddie Punk hiding in the background and put him on ice. Eddie used to be a fast FRB but these days is king of the SCBs. He didn't run today but came for the beer instead he said.

Just before the run started Posh arrived as the GM was soliciting Subs for 2018. 'Hi Lee Li Na' said the GM... 'No I'm POSH', she says. So POSH was on ice, not for talking back to the GM but that she has been MIA for some time. And she paid her subs too!!

The final icing for the evening was to thank all the contributors who freely gave of their money and of their time to help make a wonderful evening. The food was delicious and plentiful and of course the subsidised beers and red wine went down very well with everyone. THANK YOU ALL.

The best way to get there is:

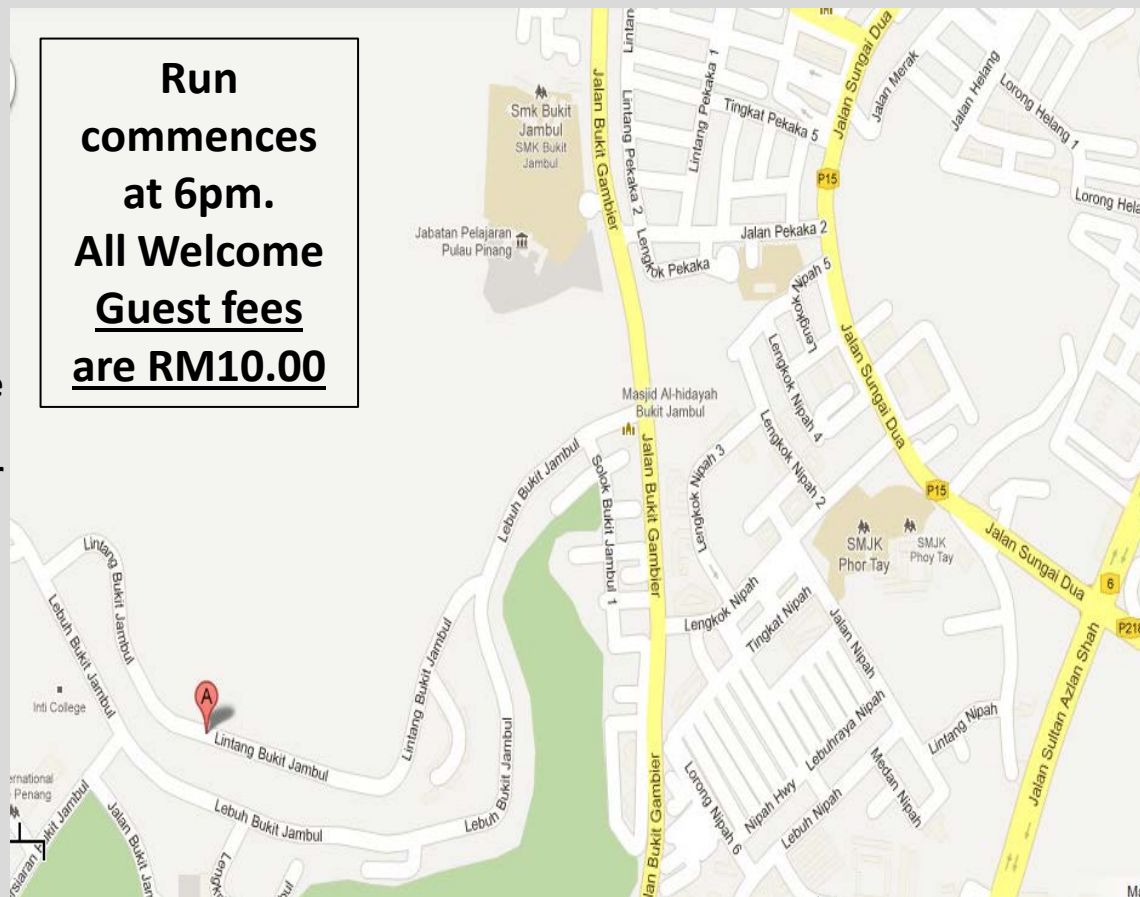

Take the Jalan Masjid Negeri past the State Mosque as though heading for the bridge.

Once you see the sign for the Jln Delima turning KEEP LEFT. DO NOT GO THROUGH THE UNDERPASS!!! Do not take the Delima turning either!!

Go up the ramp and all the way back around the roundabout as through doing a U-turn and come back down the other side. Take the left turn into Jln Yeap Chor Ee. The road becomes Jln Bkt Gambier. Follow the road for a while.

Go past Ivory Plaza. Carry on until the right turn to Bkt Jambul. Take the right turn into Lebuhr Bkt Jambul.. (This turn is just after an overhead pedestrian bridge over the road. The Masjid Al-hidayah Mosque is on the corner).

Follow the road and take the right turn in Lintang Bkt Jambul.
