GM's Notes

Getting to Mount Pleasure during the holidays was always going to be a worry. It was that time of year when Penang was flooded with tourists and any place seemed like a potential car park thus blocking and slowing down traffic not to mention the reckless motor bikers. There was even an accident at the entrance to Mount Pleasure which held up the Hashers. 'So near and yet so far' they said as they trickled in.

With directions duly given the hashers got on the trail with the exception Dieu Lah Sing and Toddy who had gone in earlier and Darren and Jillian who had gone in even earlier! So when Iceman returned within the hour and said they were still a long way off it was a little surprising.

As the hashers made their way back Dieu Lah Sing and Toddy came back via Shamrock obviously having missed a turn somewhere whilst Darren and Jillian came out in the dark followed by Silent Man and Beauty Queen.

After the lovely food we had our usual circle.

Many thanks to Imposter for a good run, good food and for subsidizing the beers!

I wish you all a VERY HAPPY, HEALTHY and Prosperous 2018

 Next Week we are at The Quarry, Botanical Gardens for the GM's run (Just Beer). Please come and support her *****

Next on ice were Darren and Jillian. They went in very early but still came out in the dark.
Wonder why they like the dark so much???

Next should have been the celebratory birthday cake for the December babies but NO ONE was there!!! Inspector Gadget has a birthday in January so we decided to celebrate that instead. But we do wish all the December babies a HAPPY BIRTHDAY.

Harriet Humour

THE DRUNK FLY

A French man, a German man, and an Irish man were all sitting at a bar drinking beer. Suddenly, three flies land in each man's beer at once. The French man pushes his beer away in disgust. The German man picks the fly out and continues drinking. The Irish man, though. He's pissed. He grabs the fly, shakes it, and yells, "Spit it out ya bastard!"
