Hash House Harriets Penang

Run: 2395

Date: 4 January 2018

Venue: The Quarry/Bee Gallery

Bunny: GM Just Beer

Burst by Iceman

Arrived at the Bee Gallery run site and found, unusually, that there was plenty of parking available. Having parked in a suitable spot proceeded to go towards the usual site of the GM and the key bag. But not seeing any Harriet's scanned the recesses of my memory, until the small bell went 'ding', and 'THE QUARRY' jumped to the frontal lobe. Jumping into the car and driving to the said location, found the parking scarce and the Harriets assembling.

At six pm, Money Manfred arrived back having gone in early, around 2pm. He's getting slower and slower. At this rate, soon he will be joining Grandma on her stroll with Molly and Kim Looi.

Just in time, to get very confusing directions from the bunny, and so followed the leading Harriets, The general, Speed hound and Lily, to the Botanic garden's gate. These seemed to know where they were going. That is until we came to the first road junction, at which point a debate as to the direction to take ensued.

To the right was the decision this time, and at each further junction a similar event occurred, until paper was spotted near to the top of the gardens. On up the trail lead, sometimes with ropes to assist and sometimes with fallen trees to obstruct. Alison and Goodyear were busy chatting about the comparative benefits of Chinese and Indian medicine for curing hash rash, or some such (I'm a bit deaf, so it could have been another type of rash). Taking the opportunity to get ahead of these FRBs, I took a fallen tree as a path.

The slope was steep and rocky, but soon turned to a nice leaf strewn trail and with a few ups and a few downs and a bit of traversing we reached the newly cut bicycling trails and continued on up. Not before redirecting Posh onto the paper, she having gone off trail for a few metres.

Pimp, then came into view, standing guard over his tummy, as his lungs sucked a veritable vacuum from the surrounding jungle air. One has to admire Pimp, he never SCBs when lesser mortals take the first opportunity. Pimp informed me that there were two early starters ahead, Daren and Jillian.

The trail wiggled along and still UP the bike path for a while before cutting sharply to the right into dense jungle. Bash through and down steeply, sliding some way before a convenient tree stopped me. Then turn to the right, and up again, more bashing bushes, more turns to right, left, up, down until I was dizzy and disoriented, and bumped into K Seven, and we scrambled for a while together through the undergrowth like mice in a corn field.

Coming around a turn to the left, there was WoodPecker, standing like a startled antelope at my approach. Who did he think he would meet in this jungle! Snow White?

A bit more of the squiggling trail, and then an on up and onto a very nice wide trail for a while where Daren popped up without Miss Jillian.

At this stage the trail could have been heading towards Permai Shop Lots or Shamrock Beach for all I knew, I was so confused.

Aside: it is my belief the Bunny and her assistant run setter were also confused, and could not find their way. However, this was deemed “Fake News” by said setters when later challenged, claiming they “knew exactly where they were going”. It was just they did not know how to get from where they were to where they were going.

But after a while recognized the familiar ‘home’ descent to the small bridge path. Out at the bridge and run for home, closely followed by Alison, and the rest, except for Pimp who took his own sweet time. By which I mean we had all already decamped to Bee Gallery due to the impending rain when he arrived.

It was there we devoured the feast of home cooked lamb, sardine, dahl, chapatti, and veg prepared by the Bunny. A very nice run followed by Yummy food.

The Circle

Everyone was an invitee this week so technically we had no guests but that didn't stop the GM from calling out LC Soon @ General and his friend John. The General is well known to all of us and always attends when in Penang. We have seen John before too. Welcome and thanks for coming.

Hash House Harriets Penang

The Circle

One person we hadn't seen before was Sarah, who is Nick Prior's daughter. She seemed to like what she saw and enjoyed her evening. Please come back again.

The Circle

A charge from the floor by Iceman put both the GM and Pole Dancer on ice. His charge was the food was too good and was tempting him to eat more than he should. As we all know Iceman is very fit and doesn't want to lose his svelte like figure by eating too much and become a fat bastard!!

The Circle

The GM remained on ice to receive thanks for the evening. She set her own run, cooked all the food, which was delicious as always and subsidised the beer. We thank you GM for a wonderful evening and even the necessitated change of venue didn't dampen the spirits of the Hashers!!

Hash House Harriets Penang

The Circle

A final charge from the floor, once again by Iceman, saw Pimp on ice. It appears that Iceman caught up to Pimp going up the last hill and asked who was in front. Pimp replied that Darren and Jillian were up ahead. As Iceman caught up with the two people ahead he found Darren sure enough but no sign of Jillian but did see K7. On asking Darren where was Jillian he replied she wasn't running today. So who did Pimp mistake for Jillian but K7! His mind is going and certainly his eyesight if he thinks K7 looks anywhere near the shape of Jillian!!
