GM's Run Notes

Run: 2396

Date: 11 January 2018

Venue: Bee Gallery

Hare: Saiseng

Viking, Sai Seng and I walked from Bee Gallery to Holland Chun for the 'on up'. After 50 metres the trail veered to the left and continued up and down where I fell many times on the wet ground coating my backside with mud in the process.

We saw mushrooms growing on a fallen log and they looked like cups stuck to the branch. Rocks gave way in some places and the monkeys in the trees protested at the noise. On and on we went until we hit the path going from the PBA then climbed again until we exited onto the Hash Highway.

We turned left at this point and climbed up to the rain gauge. The 'bridge' over the swollen stream kept our feet dry but all around us branches that had snapped off lay on the ground and the exposed soil was being washed away. It had been a long time since we had come here and as we rounded the corner we meet other hikers one even in bare feet!! We came down by the stairs and even here the contours of the land had changed due to the storms with more uprooted trees but at least the stairs were cleared! I had forgotten how unending the steps are and it seemed forever before we hit the bottom and headed back to Bee Gallery!

In the evening Darren and Woodpecker went in early and met with a guy sporting a hash t-shirt just coming out of the gardens. They invited him to join us at Bee Gallery which he duly did. Cocktail (an American touring Asia) had no hiking shoes and so just sat and chatted with the gang who normally stay behind.

Iceman was first back after an hour 10 mins. The others duly followed after some time. All that is except Pukka Sahib, Darren and Woodpecker! AML got a call to say two of them were at Permai having turned RIGHT on the Highway instead of left and followed the wrong paper. So off she went to retrieve them. Pukka Sahib has realised his mistake and turned around and finished the run arriving back late but safe.

The food was a feast with roast pork, Lobah, chicken, veggie, rice and Bee Hoon. It went down very well with the subsidised beer. Many thanks to Sai Seng for his generous hosting and also for exchanging dates at the last moment!

Pukka Sahib was first on ice this week. He usually does something wrong on the run and it wouldn't be normal if he got it right, so it was no surprise to hear that he went on the wrong paper on the highway and had to turn around to finish the run.

Darren and Woodpecker were likewise iced for also following the wrong paper and going in the wrong direction. The poor lost souls had to be rescued by AML who fetched them back in her car.

Welcome the guests Yolanda ducked the ice but Cocktail was still enjoying himself. He had met with Darren earlier who then invited him to join us for the evening. He had on a Vietnamese Hash T-Shirt but had no suitable shoes on to actually do the run. He enjoyed his evening though.

Frozen Pussy was called out by The GM and was soon joined by
