Hash House Harriets Penang

Run: 2402

Date: 22 February 2018

Venue: Charlie's Market

Hare: Iceman

VGM's Run Notes

The weather has been hot the last few days and the sun is slightly hidden by the ashes from the volcano eruption earlier in Sumatra. It also looked like rain, but that might be later in the evening or not at all. Iceman's run was on the agenda, that's normally a good run and good food. Others must have thought the same because the turnout was good. We had 9 guests: Syliva, Gyorgyi, Gabor and Jodo from Hungary, Peter and Susan from Aussieland, David and LiWan also from Australia (if I remember correctly) and Sudakhar from Penang. Sudakhar liked it so much that after the run he became a member. Ronnie Tour showed up and paid his subs. Even Eddy Punk was on time. Some announcements: next week's run is the Chinese New Year Run at Bee Gallery, guest fees will be RM30.00. Mem Sahib, Rupiah and Sai Seng are in charge, so if you want to contribute anything, please contact one of them. The week after is the AGM, think about what you can do for your club.

Iceman announced a medium run, a typical Thursday run with checks and a bar. I don't think a typical Thursday run has checks and bars, but it's very nice to have that on a run. Be careful it will be slippery and he pointed to the stairs up the road and off we went.

We were told only to follow Iceman's and Harriets run paper, if you follow other papers and got yourself lost there won't be any search team send up! The Hungarians looked very fit, but looks can be very deceiving. Good Year told me later they did well. But they also admitted that a jungle run is something different then a road run. Yeah we all know that.

I decided to go and see how far I could go before the man with hammer would come knocking. I got off paper and went back where I met Rupiah, Silent Man and three guests. So I decided to stay with them and up we went. Halfway the run David needed a rest and while we waited the mosquitoes had a free dinner on us. Sudakhar did very well on his first run. He also said it's not easy. Rupiah and I in the front and Silent Man in the back and so we continued. We did cross the bar, because David was too tired to do the whole run. But after a while we came to the on down paper and followed it to the hash highway, where we were really disgusted by the view of the massive towers.

Back at the runsite we were welcomed by a delicious pork roast and a fantastic salad, just what we needed after a good run.

The Circle

We welcomed the guests, they all had liked the run. The Hungarian ladies wanted to sit on ice, so the boys followed. Although we don't do icings on Thursday Good Year decided to baptize them.

Next on ice the Dinner club: W'Anchor. W'Anchor said he did not come for the run he came for the lovely company. Okay understood so we gave him Rupiah and Pussycat as lovely company on the ice.

Next on ice Missy: she kept on talking with her friend. Her excuse was if she talks I need to talk back. Since we gave W'Anchor lovely company we decided to give Missy lovely company as well.

We do not gender discriminate! So Oyster Licker and Money Manfred were asked to accompany Missy on the ice.

It's D-day before Hokkien New Year and according to tradition it's everybody's birthday. Unfortunately none of the February babies were present, so half of our members got to the ice were they were presented by a birthday cake. We sang happy birthday to ourselves.

We also had some unfinished icing from a previous run, Polish Piper on ice. He had the run at his house on the mainland but there was no ice available at that time. The hashers who went to his house said the run was good and the food plentiful. Thank you Polish Piper.
